_____

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Minnesota Statutes 1945)

Sec. 272.01. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 273.01 * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1; and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 273.22. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his  personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property located, loaned, or otherwise employed by him as agent or attorney. ***

3. The property of a minor, child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person whose benefit it is held in trust.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the executor of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as aforesaid.

Sec. 273.26. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where owner, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property; where listed. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, pianos, phonographs, and radios, and all tools, implements and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on.

Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside upon the farm, such property shall be listed in the town or district where the farm is situated. If the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in possession and being operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline Companies. Subdivision 1. Personal property of  pipeline companies engaged in the business of transporting natural gas, gasoline, or other petroleum products  shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the same is usually kept.

Subdivision 2. The personal property, consisting of the pipeline system of mains, pipes and equipment attached thereto, of pipeline companies and others engaged in the operations or business of transporting natural gas, gasoline, or other petroleum products  shall be listed with and assessed by the Commissioner of Taxation. This subdivision shall not apply to the assessment of the products transported through the pipe lines nor to the lines of local commercial gas companies engaged primarily in the business of distributing such products to consumers, or to companies engaged in the sale of such products to supply others; gas or other petroleum products exclusively for such owner's own consumption and not for resale to others. The Commissioner of Taxation, on the first Monday in November shall certify to the auditor of each county, the amount of such personal property assessment against each company in such district in which such property is located.

Sec. 273.35. Gas and Water Companies. The personal property of gas and water companies, including the distribution system, shall be listed in the town or district where located, without regard to where the principal or other place of business of the company may be located.

Sec. 273.36. Electric Light and Power Companies and others supplying electricity. The personal property of electric light and power companies and others supplying electricity with other outside corporate limits of Villages, Cities, and Boroughs. Subdivision 1. Personal property of electric light and power companies, and other individuals and partnerships supplying electric light and power, including the distribution system, shall be listed in the town or district and hereinafter shall be listed and assessed in the district where situated, except as otherwise provided.

Subdivision 2. All transmission and distribution lines, and equipment attached thereto having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities, and boroughs, except distribution lines listed as provided in Section 273.40 and 273.41, shall be listed with and assessed by the Commissioner of Taxation in the county where situated. The Commissioner of Taxation shall certify to the auditor of each county in which such properties and poles are located, the amount of true and full value fixed by law, on or before the fifteenth day of November, shall certify to the auditor of each county in which such properties and poles are located, the amount of such assessment.

Sec. 273.23. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property shall state also the value of his property pertaining to his business as a merchant. No consignee shall be required to list for taxation any property the product of this state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.24. Every person, firm or company manufacturer required to list his property shall state the value of all articles purchased, received, or otherwise held for the purpose of being used, in whole or in part, in any process of manufacturing, combining, rectifying or refining. Every manufacturer and person owning a manufacturing establishment of any kind, shall include in his return of the value of his stock, all articles or goods in such establishment, whether completed or designed to be used in any such process, except such fixtures as have been considered part property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of dwelling at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Personal property of guardianship. The personal property of wards, minors, and others shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one town, city, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place as may be first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he has listed for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization, and if between different counties the place shall be determined by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner, of all such property which is in possession or under his control, which  he is required to list for others, as agent, attorney, trustee, guardian, parent, master, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.05. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for others, as aforesaid, has not made a full, true, and complete list, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.08. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the value and amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.28. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary, enter any dwelling, or other building, or any place containing horses, buildings, or structures, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 609.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or collecting any tax or assessment, who shall willfully make any statement as to any matter of fact which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other fees tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined and taconite and semi-taconite, shall be taxed and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the true and full value. ***

Class 1a. All direct products of the blast and open hearth furnaces that are utilized in the form produced and are not further processed, shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All unmanufactured goods and furnitures, including household furniture and furniture used in furnishing apartments of members of the family and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, and constitutes class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural produce, except as provided in class one and class two, and all livestock, poultry, and all of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufactures' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "d" and all real estate, which is rural in character and not platted or used primarily for residential purposes, agricultural use, except as provided in classes one and class three "b" hereof, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 33⅓ per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 6. Class 3b. Livestock, poultry, all farm implements and tools used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "d" and shall be valued and assessed at 33⅓ per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1950 assessment by G. HOWARD SPAETH, Commissioner of Taxation.
