Subdivision 2. All transformers and distribution lines, and equipment attached thereto, of electric light and power companies, in corporate limits of village, cities and boroughs, except distribution lines assessed in Section 273.40 and 273.41, shall be listed with and assessed by the county in which such pipeline is located, and shall be assessed in the same manner as other personal property is assessed, except that the portion of such pipeline of interstate or local commercial electric light and power companies engaged primarily in the business of local consumption and distribution of electric light and power, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where such property is located (for assessment made against each company and person owning such property.

Sec. 273.23. Merchants; Computation. Every merchant required to list his property shall state also the value of his stock in trade, and the value of his business, for no compute shall be required to pay taxes on the value of the product of this state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, or in which he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.24. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state also the value of all articles manufactured, or in process of manufacture, or in the process of being used, in whole or in part. Every manufacturer and person engaged in manufacturing, combining, refining or refining, shall state the value of all raw materials, or materials in process, the value of all tools, implements, machinery, tools, and implements used or being considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a decedent shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees or receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removed from one county, town, or district to which he is liable to be taxed between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either of the places where such property is liable to be taxed, at the place where it was STIF owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district where he resides, and shall be taxed for the whole of such property in the manner that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 723.48. Where listed in case of death. In case of death or insolvency of any person owning personal property or where it cannot be listed in the place where it is usually kept, it shall be listed in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be fixed by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, * * * by the county auditor of each county, by the Commissioner of Taxation * * *.

Sec. 273.54. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property shall verify the same by affidavit, and every person required to list property shall be required to make a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements of all property in his possession or under his control which * * * he is required to list as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, officer, or in any other capacity * * *.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person that the person listing property for himself, or for and consents list therein, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and true statement of such property, or has omitted any such property, or has omitted the amount of the property he is required to list; and if senior may list the same, refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Section 273.68. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be just and reasonable, and shall make return of such lists and deliver to the person named in such lists the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.70. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to ascertain the property to be taxed, enter any dwelling, house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 270.03. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required by any law, or law to be made or a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, shall knowingly make a false statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.
