Subdivision 1. Personal property of electric light and power companies, and of individuals and partnerships engaged in electric light and power, situated wholly outside of the corporate limits of villages, cities, and boroughs shall be listed and assessed in the town situated, except as otherwise provided.

Subdivision 2. All transmission and distribution lines, and equipment attached thereto, having a situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities, and boroughs, except distribution lines taxed as provided in Section 273.40 and 273.41, shall be listed with and assessed by the Commissioner of Taxation in the county where situated, at the percentage of value prescribed by law for the percentage of true and full value fixed by law; and, on or before the fifteenth day of November, shall certify to the auditor of each county the amount of such personal property assessment against each company and person owning such property.

Sec. 273.23. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property shall state also the value of his property pertaining to his business as a merchant. No consignee shall be required to list for taxation any property the product of this state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.24. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state also the value of all goods, wares, and merchandise, or other articles held for the purpose of being used, in whole or in part, in any process of manufacturing, combining, rectifying or refining. Every manufacturer and person owning a manufacturing establishment of any kind shall list, as part of his manufacturer's stock, the value of all machinery, implements, and equipment used or designed to be used for any such process, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor, under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where he shall reside.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees and receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of taxing before his appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property removed between May and July. The owner of personal property removed from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 272.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place where property should be assessed, it shall be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, a schedule containing a list of all personal property, and of all real property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which  he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor or administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and if such person shall refuse to be so examined or to answer under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.66. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall furnish to the person so assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary in the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required by any law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All property in this state, except as hereinafter specifically excepted or subject to any gross earnings or other lien tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. ***

Class 1a. All direct products of the kiln and open hearth furnace, and all products of the blast furnace, shall be valued and assessed, shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "A", and class three "B," stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any business not provided for class three "B" and all real estate, which, as to its character and devoted or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural use, except as provided by classes one and three "B" hereof, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 33⅓ per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "A" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 6. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules, and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuits, and all farm buildings and structures shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 7. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1950 assessment by G. HOWARD SPAETH, Commissioner of Taxation.
