EXTRACTS FROM LAWS

(Section Numbers refer to Mason's Minn. Statutes 1927.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation—All real and personal property in the state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. All real property subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed every even-numbered year with reference to its value on May 1 preceding the assessment, and all real property becoming taxable any intervening year shall be listed and assessed with reference to its value on May 1 of that year. Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

RELATING TO THE LISTING OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of foreign stock or other companies or corporations (not of this state), all shares of stock of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), royalties, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys, credits, and personal property belonging, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as agent, or in any fiduciary, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company, or corporation, and all moneys charged with or held in his hands for any person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper officer or agent thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2002. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is conducted. Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within and designed to be sawed in this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all logs and timber cut from lands within and designed to be paid into the district of which of the county of the taxing district and of the state where found on May 1; and all logs and timber shall upon such logs and timber, when the same shall have been removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, wherever the same may be found.

Sec. 2004. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated. Provided, that if the farm is situated in natural towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2006. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which shall be held in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough, in the state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or chief place of business of said company is located.

Sec. 2012-1. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place of guardian residing; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed where the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he was first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2021. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make a separate statement in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control, and every person in this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation any other capacity but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property subject to taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and true statement of such property, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of such property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case he shall be unable to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such sum as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement and the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 2037. Assessor may enter dwelling, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or enclosure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 2038. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in matter, any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which shall prove to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2052. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore, whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. The real estate in which iron ore shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but in the case aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified and valued in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "a" (3a) and three "b" (3b) hereof, and in the case may be. In assessing any tract or parcel of real estate which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed as the value of the land and ore.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, implements, machinery, materials and manufactured articles, all tools, except as provided by class three (3) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all farm implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by law or hereafter fixed by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓% and 40% of the true and full value respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof. (G. L. 1933, Chap. 359)
