Sec. 273.37. Electric Light and Power Companies and others supplying electric power; place of listing and assessment of personal property with situs outside corporate limits of Villages, Cities, and Boroughs. Subdivision 1. Personal property of electric light and power companies, and of individuals and corporations supplying electric light and power, having a fixed situs outside of the corporate limits of villages, cities, and boroughs, shall be listed and assessed in the district where situated, notwithstanding anything to the contrary.

Subdivision 2. All transmission and distribution lines, and equipment attached thereto, having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs, except distribution lines used as defined in Section 216.07 and 216.11, shall be listed with and assessed by the Commissioner of Taxation in the county where located. The assessment shall be made annually with reference to the average of true and full value fixed by law, and, on or before the fifteenth day of November, shall certify to the auditor of each county the amount of such property in such county, and the amount of taxes made against such property and person owning such property.

Sec. 273.21. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property shall state also the value of his property potatoes ing to his business as a merchant. No consignee shall be required to list for taxation any property the product of this state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded. If he has no interest in such property other than the proceeds from its sale.

Sec. 273.24. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state the value of all goods, wares, merchandise received, or otherwise held for the purpose of being used, in whole or in part, in any process of manufacturing, combining, rectifying or refining. Every manufacturer and person owning a manufacturing establishment of any kind shall list, as part of his manufacturer's stock, all goods, wares, merchandise, implements, tools, and implements used or designed to be used in any manufacturing process, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.64. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the ward resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the same is located.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property coming from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in the county, town, or district where he resides, unless he shall make it appear that the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax or the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place where any person or property should be assessed, or to be listed as in this chapter provided, if property shall be in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon request, a list of all the personal property owned by him or held for property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in the manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which  he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity.

Sec. 273.26. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list. If such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best information and judgment.

Sec. 273.68. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall also deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessors may enter buildings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may enter upon any to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or shall be made under any law of this state relating to assessing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.
