Sec. 2017. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a person shall be listed and assessed at the place of letting at the time of appointment.

Sec. 2017. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place where the ward and guardian reside, or where the guardianship, where the ward and guardian reside.

Sec. 2018. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of letting before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another after May 1, and before the first Monday in July, in which he is not called upon by the assessor, shall be listed into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place of letting personal property or where it cannot be found, or of a character provided, if between places in the same county, the place where the owner resides, if between places in several of the county boards of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, shall be deemed conclusive, and shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all property, real and personal, owned by him on the ensuing first day of May. He shall also make separate statements of the current year personal property in his possession or under the manner of all other persons, firms, or corporations, and of the property of all minors, idiots, lunatics, insane, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, or other person, firm, or corporation, and of no person shall be required to include in his statement any part of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to include in and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation, or any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, true, and complete statement of the property upon oath under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to answer any proper question, or if such person may find the property of such person or the property hereafter to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and shall make the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value, and, if not so assessed, he shall state and deliver to the person assessed the amount of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 2037. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized to make assessments may enter any dwelling, when necessary in the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the premises thereof.

Sec. 10906. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement or report to any officer or board or person authorized by law to be made by a board of township supervisors or tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement of any fact or circumstance which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings tax or license tax in lieu thereof, shall be assessed at the relative as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with the land in which it is located, but if the land is not owned, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which it is located, but at the than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the use to which it is put. Class 2. Real estate (1) (25) and (lots (4) as the case may be, in assessing any land or real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of such land or real estate in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land adjoining such ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate value so assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 3. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 290, Laws of 1919, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. Farm stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty (30) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 5. Real estate, except as provided in class one (1) hereof class 3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 6. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof class, which is used for the purposes of a bona fide farm, shall constitute class three "3" (2b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof class 3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for class three (3) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and compensation of assessors based on hundred dollar valuations now established by statute or by charter, class 2b and class 5c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and class 3 and class 4 property at 25 per cent respectively.

Class 6, All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book; complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
