Sec. 273.23. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property shall also list the value of all property held by him on consignment, or otherwise held for the purpose of selling, in whole, or in part, for the account of another, or for commission, rectifying or refining. Every manufacturer and person owning a manufacturing establishment of any kind shall list, as part of his manufacturer's stock, the value of all engines, machinery, tools, and implements used or designed to be used in any such process, except such fixtures as are part of the freehold of such establishment.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place where he is appointed.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place, which he may elect, and upon by the assessor. A person coming into this state from another state between said dates shall be assessed in the county, town, or district in which he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be ascertained at the place provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 278.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and subscribe a statement of all property upon blanks furnished by him, in a prescribed statement of all personal property subject to taxation, on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate lists showing the number of all personal property in his possession or under his control which  he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, partner, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. The assessor shall be of the opinion, or shall have reason to believe any property for himself, or as agent, trustee, executor, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor shall list the property according to the best of his information and informed judgment.

Sec. 278.66. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property may enter any dwelling house, or any other place of residence of his desire, enter any dwelling building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, wa shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.15. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. Class 1. Iron ore, all cost and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or mortgage shall constitute Class one and shall be valued and assessed as follows (50) per cent of its true and full value thereof. Iron ore shall be assessed with or in the part of the real estate in which it is located. Iron ore shall be assessed. Iron ore which either (a) is mined by underground methods and placed in stockpiles subsequent to August 1 of a calendar year and prior to the next succeeding May 1, and which contains phosphorus in excess of 0.05 pounds as silicon, Manganese, or (b) is mined by open pit methods, and in accordance with good engineering and metallurgical practice, requires concentration other than crushing or screening or both to make it marketable and placed in stat blast furnace use, and which is so mined and placed in stat blast furnace use, and which is so mined during the calendar year and prior to the next succeeding May 1 for two taxable years after being mined only, shall be listed and assessed in the taxing district where mined at the same amount per ton as it would be assessed if still continued and thereafter such ore in stockpiles shall be valued and assessed as mined iron ore. Taconite, taconite ore, and taconite concentrate in which iron ore is present, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three, three "b," and four, as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and assessed separate the tract or lot.

Class 1a. All direct products of the blast and open hearth furnaces that are outlined in the form produced and are not further processed, shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or enjoyment of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" and class three "b" and farmers tool thereof, of all sorts together with the furniture and farmers tool thereof, of farmers and farmers, and all manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "d" and all real estate, which is rural in character and devoted or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural use, except as provided by classes one and three "b" hereof, shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 33⅓ per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

* * *

Subdivision 8. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules, and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "d" and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1949 assessment by G. HOWARD SPAETH, Commissioner of Taxation.
