OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

Cass County, Minn., April 9 1929.

R. F. Ross Assessor of the Village of Walker

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Village for the year 1929 containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

A A Cater County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to General Statutes, 1923.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1985. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this State, shall list all personal property owned by him, or in the stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, securities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise employed by him as the agent or attorney of an absent or absentee person, or held by him as such agent, or moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or the property of the estate of a deceased person, by the trustee or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 1985. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 1985. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer, shall be listed and assessed in the county where such business is carried on. Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and taxed in the logging district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county in which such logs and timber are found in the same manner as if such logs and timber shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 1986. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district in which such farm is located. If such farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 318, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property ordinarily used in the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 1989. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, controlled, or operated by such company, shall be assessed and taxed as listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 1992. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough shall be listed and assessed in the city, village, or borough without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 364, Laws 1921. Personal property of electric light and power companies, outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship, shall be listed by the guardian, the guardian ad litem, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees and receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, moving into one county, town, or district in another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place, but in first mentioned place by the assessor of Scott County, the assessor of Dakota County, the assessor of Washington County, and the assessor of Ramsey County, if such person shall reside in any town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place where any personal property should be listed, it shall be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, and when so determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2023. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property in his possession or under his control which he shall also make verified statements for the owner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by law chargeable he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, trustee, trustee, assignee, administrator, receiver, or in any other fiduciary capacity, or as a public officer, and no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person, or with in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and shall administer to such person an oath, that the answer may be given under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of any personal property, the assessor shall estimate the amount and value of such property, and assess the amount he believes to be the true value thereof. When so assessed, he shall also cause to be delivered to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1927. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary, enter any dwelling, house, or other building, or any other building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10304. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis or impose or reducing any tax or assessment, or for any other purpose, shall willfully make any statement which he shall know or shall be known to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. What percentage of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to assessment and taxation, shall be listed in any proper envelope or other form as is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but if mined and stored upon the land from which it was mined or other land the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3) and four (4) as the case may be. If the ownership of the land from which the ore is to be or is known to exist, the assessor of the county, exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the ownership of the land exclusive of the ore, shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property ordinarily used by the owner for personal and family use, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts, together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "b" (3b) and all tangible real estate, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-three and one-half (23 1/2) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the owner, including livestock, poultry, tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in his agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, General Statutes of Minnesota, 1923. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
