8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of consignees, by such agent in the name of his principal, as aforesaid.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on, except such as is in use in another place than the place of and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all of the taxing districts and of the different funds of the county of the taxing district and of the different other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such property, and the same shall be collected in the manner and the borders of this state could all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 206, Laws of 1925, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., as railroad. All elevators and warehouses with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of a railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and controlled by such railroad company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, in the name of the principal.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city or village shall be listed and assessed where situated and not company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of any city or village shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place of residence of his guardian, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of letting before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between the first day of May and the first day of July in which he is first called upon by the assessor, shall be entitled to list the same from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. When listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place in which to list personal property or where it can not be listed in the manner provided, if between places in the same county, the place where it is usually kept, and if in different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, in the manner hereinbefore provided in other cases shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all property, real and personal, owned by him on the ensuing year. He shall also make similar statements of the current year personal property in his possession or under his control, belonging to any person, or held in trust for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, or in any other fiduciary capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any part of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to include and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full and true statement of the property taxable, such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to answer the assessor or his principal assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and shall set down in the roll at such amount as he believes to be the true value; and, if so requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 2037. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer entitled to make assessments of property may enter, when necessary in the proper performance of his duties, any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the premises.

Sec. 10906. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in any statement, report, or other paper, shall be required or authorized by law to be made to a board of immediate equalization or tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement of any fact or circumstance which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1995. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings tax or other in lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with the land in which it is located, and if mined, it shall be at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the character of the surface as herein provided. In assessing any such ore as may be known to exist the assessable value of the real estate in which the iron ore is located, and the assessable value of the land adjacent to the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate thereof shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 206, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class two, and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of its full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class four (4) and class five (5), farming implements, together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, all agricultural materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery used in business not otherwise, except as provided by classes one (1) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by classes one (1) and three (3), shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 4. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all farming implements and machinery used for the owner's farm (agricultural purposes), not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 206, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 5a. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "3a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof: Provided, if the true and full value of any such tract or lot is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 5b and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, if the true and full value of any such lot or parcel is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining the maximum limit of bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 5b and class 5c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and class 5a and class 5d property at full value thereof respectively.

Class 6. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class six (6) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending and meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
