Matt Rand Assessor of the Town of Unsel

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1936, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. L. Simons

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Persons Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1994. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all the moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations, (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all such property of his principal as is controlled by him or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys collectable subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from, or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The guardian of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, or of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of merchants and manufacturers, including that of manufactures shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and adjacent to, any organized town, shall be listed by owners and listed in the taxing district where located, and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which lien shall attach upon the landing on the borders of the state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town, village or city where the owner, agent, or trustee of such farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1933. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1933, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2010. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, and other personal property, except rolling stock, upon the land of any railroad company which are herein and hereinafter operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, in the name unknown.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed in the city or district without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1933. Personal property of electric light and power companies in villages, cities and boroughs. The personal property of electric light and power companies being a fixed property outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2013. Property of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Personal property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property moved between the county seats, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed at the place in which he is first called upon for the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it can not be listed in the county, township, or district of between places in the same county, the place shall be determined by the county auditor, or, if determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties to be the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as finally so fixed and determined.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and return to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, including all personal property required to be assessed with all personal property in his possession or under his control, and all this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, assignee, agent, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but excepting from such statement the shares of stock in corporations of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath touching the property so listed, or claimed to be omitted to be listed; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person, or of his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount and value, and if such person, company, or corporation be assessed, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary, enter any dwelling, building, or other place, or open any house, outhouse, or enclosure, and view the same and the property thereto.

Sec. 1998. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in any statement, oath, or written, which is required or authorized by law, shall make any false statement concerning any tax or assessment, who shall willfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 1996. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the land in which it is located, but if the fee of the land is owned in fee by the state of Minnesota, or any subdivision thereof, the real estate in which it is located, but if the provisions of clauses three (3), three "D" (3D) and four (4) as the same are now or hereafter amended, shall be applicable to such iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land shall be determined by the assessor of the county in which it is located and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, except those exempt under the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1933, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in clauses "a" (1a), stocks of merchandise, of all kinds together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all book, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by clause "b" (1b) of class one (1) hereof, and all other property not specified in class one (1) and class "b" (1b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and all livestock, poultry, and all implements and machinery used for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1933, shall constitute class three "A" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and, when is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "B" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. For the purposes of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
