8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of agents, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of merchants and manufacturers, including stock in trade, shall be listed in the town or municipality of or a manufactory shall be located, or in the town or municipality in which business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from the public lands and designed to be transported out of the state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid to the treasurer of the county in behalf of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which lien shall continue until they reach the borders of this state; until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town in which such farm is located: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 218, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property of a family used for household purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of chapter 360, Laws of 1925, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses for the storage of grain, fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company, and not owned or leased and operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, in the name of the occupant.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages, not situated in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages, not situated in any city, village or borough in this state, shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business is located and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2013. Property of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the ward resides, and that of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place where such assignee has his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing between May and July, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall, if the property remain in the state from assessment by the former town or district, list the property owned by him in the state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the town, or district in which it was located, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax in the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed in the manner provided, if between places in the same county, the place of listing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, and the property shall be listed and assessed as if found herein.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on the first day of the current year. He shall also make separate statements of the number of all personal property in his possession, or under his control, on the last day of the year, or be required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, trustee, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, or in any other fiduciary capacity; and no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to make and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor, or any person shall be satisfied that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and correct statement of the property of such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure of such property, the assessor may examine such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and shall enter the same in the amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When so ascertained, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the entry therein showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 2027. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer assessor in the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, outbuilding, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10256. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oath, or affidavit, or any other paper authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax, shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value shall be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other like tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of its true and full value, if mined; if unmined, it shall be valued and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located other than the ore shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of this section, and the value of the land and the iron ore may be, in assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land, and the value of the land exclusive of the ore, and the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property of a family used for household purposes, or for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of chapter 360, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stacks of merchandise of all sorts and kinds, all furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether attached to the realty or not, except as provided by class three "b" (3b) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by classes one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty and one-third (20⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used for agricultural purposes, whether attached to the realty or not, except those specifically classified and taxed under the provisions of Chapter 206, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) and class three "a" (3a) hereof, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum set forth and specified, in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for in class four (4) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum set forth and specified, in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on population, definitions and determining tax limitations and net bonded debt, all property in excess of the sum set forth and specified, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 20% of the cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
