4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 273.26. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where owned, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property; where listed. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on ***.

Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district, where the farm is situated. If the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of a railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline Companies, Subdivision 1. Personal property of  pipeline companies engaged in the business of transporting natural gas, gasoline, or other petroleum products by pipe, shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the same is usually kept.

Subdivision 2. The personal property, consisting of the pipeline system of such pipeline companies and appurtenances thereto, of pipeline companies and others engaged in the business of transporting or distributing natural gas, gasoline or other petroleum products by pipe, shall be listed with and assessed by the Commissioner of Taxation as provided in Section 273.37 and 273.42, the assessment of the pipelines transported through the pipeline system in the likes of local commercial gas companies engaged primarily in the business of distributing gas to consumers at retail nor to pipe lines used by the owner thereof to supply natural gas or other petroleum products to its plants, or to pipe lines used by such owner to deliver to others, on or before a different day of November, the amount of taxes shall certify to the auditor of each county, the amount of taxes assessed against such company in each district in which such property is located.

Sec. 273.35. Gas and Water Companies. The personal property of gas and water companies shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where such property is located, except the capital or other place of business of the company may be located.

Sec. 273.36. Electric Light and Power Companies to be assessed where property is located. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or town in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated, without regard to where the principal or other place of business of the company is located.

Sec. 273.37. Electric Light and Power Companies and others supplying electric light and power. Personal property of personal property with situs outside corporate limits of Villages, Cities, and Boroughs. Subdivision 1. Individuals and companies supplying electric light and power, having a fixed situs outside of the corporate limits of villages and boroughs shall be listed and assessed in the district where situated, except as otherwise provided.

Subdivision 2. All transmission and distribution lines, and equipment attached thereto, having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages and boroughs, shall be assessed as real property, taxed as provided in Section 273.40 and 273.41, and collected, and assessed by the Commissioner of Taxation in the county where situated. The commissioner shall assess such property at the percentage of true and full value fixed by law; and, on or before the fifteenth day of November, certify to the auditor of each county in which such property is located the amount of the assessment made against each company and person owing such property.

Sec. 273.38. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property shall state also the value of his property pertaining to his business as a merchant. No consignee shall be required to list for taxation any property the product of this state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from the same.

Sec. 273.24. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state also the value of all articles manufactured, received, or otherwise held for the purpose of being used, in whole or in part, in any process of manufacturing, combining, rectifying or distilling, or of preparing for market, or preparing a manufacturing establishment of any kind shall list, among other things, the manufacturer's stock, the value of all engines, machinery, tools, and implements used or designed to be used in any such process, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of residence of the owner of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Estates under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor or other person under guardianship, listed and assessed where the guardian resides at end of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place where he shall have been appointed.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property moved from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1 shall be assessed in either; in which he is first called upon by the assessor after such moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he has held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property, the same shall be listed as in this chapter provided. If between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county auditor; if between different counties, or between different towns, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and subscribe, when so assessed, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in the manner of all personal property for which he is required to make his omitted which,  he is required to list for taxation as agent, or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete disclosure, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make such discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.66. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person entitled thereto a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law, shall knowingly make a false statement of any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement or to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13 Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any given exemption or other law tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.
