DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

CASS County, Minn., APR 23 1941.

George H. Lewis Assessor of the Town of Backer

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1941, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. E. Barron County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1986. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. The owner, being of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list, severally, and in the name of his principal, all such property and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise contributed by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company, or corporation, or as guardian, executor, or administrator, and all moneys and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the town, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where the business is carried on, except such as is exempt from taxation, or is held, and not designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid in the taxing district where such property of the taxing district and of the state as other assets are paid, and shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside upon the farm, such property shall be assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212. Laws 1923. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including musical instruments, sewing machines, and wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used for the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district listed and assessed as personal property of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and the power companies having a fixed situs in any city or village, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 206. Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies, associations, or limited liability corporations, outside of cities and villages shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of letting at the time of his death.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. The personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of letting before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property moved from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he in fact called upon by the assessor, and shall list it into the state from another state between May 1 and July 1 in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2019. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place for listing and assessing any property, it shall be deemed to be within the purview of this chapter, if between places in different towns, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota Department of Taxation; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property in his possession or under his control which he shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by the provisions of this chapter is to be listed for taxation in other assessing districts, jurisdictions, or taxing districts, and any accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and if such person shall refuse to be sworn or to discover under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to the best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount and value, and if such person be a resident of the town assessed, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary, for the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 13956. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement which is material and which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other ben tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the value of such iron ore as shall be in excess of the value of the land thus the ore shall be valued and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "b" (3b) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore contained in such tract or lot of real estate shall be determined and the value and ratio of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used for the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Livestock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts (another with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided hereinafter, all boats, all motor vehicles, except those specially classified in classes one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer or raiser thereof, all livestock, except those specially classified for exemption purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All motor vehicles, except those provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a business, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of $1,000.00 such excess shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value of such tract of unplatted real estate shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof: Provided, further, that the first $1,000.00 full and true value of such tract of unplatted real estate shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true value, shall remain subject to and be taxed for the purposes of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 3c. All platted and unplatted real estate, except as provided in class three (3) and class three "a" (3a) hereof, shall constitute class three "c" (3c) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $1,000.00, the amount in excess of $1,000.00 shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof: Provided, further, that the first $1,000.00 full and true value of such tract of platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof, shall remain subject to and be taxed for the purposes of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining ratios of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining the distribution and apportionment of state and county taxes and of determining for clearing cross 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 25% per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceeding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1936, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending and meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
