He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property invested, loaned, or employed as aforesaid, by him as the agent or attorney, or as guardian of a minor, or as trustee, company, or corporation, and all moneys deputed subject to his order, or of which he shall receive the first or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or ward shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or the trustee, of his estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed by the owner, firm, company, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer, including stock in trade, materials, and finished goods carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and dredged to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district in which the same are found, and such logs and such trees shall be a lien upon such logs and timber which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all taxes thereon are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock, farming implements, or other personal property, does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the owner of such farm does not reside in the state, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, washing machines, and other articles of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for the family and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of a dwelling, and not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 205, Laws of 1925, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2013. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, and machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company, and used in connection with the business operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where the same are situated, if the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough shall be listed in the city, village, or borough in which, or without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in and outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the manner provided herein.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of dwelling at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of business before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property which shall be removed from one town or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into a town or district between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is paid for tax of the current year on the property in another county.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of death. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing, or if the property of a decedent be situated partly in the county, town, or district, or between two or more counties, towns, or districts, the property shall be assessed and listed in the county board of assessors of the county, town, or district in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2026. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and subscribe a written or printed statement, to be furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, or which he shall have acquired on that day, and shall deliver all personal property in his possession or under his control, and this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, or guardian of a minor, or trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, or agent, or in any other capacity; but no person shall be required to make a return of personal property belonging to the joint stock or any company or corporation, but it is sufficient for the list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2028. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation, or the agent, attorney, guardian, or representative, has not made a full, fair, and complete inventory, or memorandum, and the person under oath in regard to the thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the property, and the property of the taxpayer, and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure on oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best information and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of taxable property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount as he believes in his judgment, and assess the same at such amount, and shall make a list of the property so assessed, and a copy of the statement shall be delivered to the person assessed, a copy of the statement shall be delivered to the person assessed, a copy of the statement shall be the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 2027. Assessors may enter dwellings. Assessors are authorized by law to assess property for taxation, and are necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of levying or reducing taxes, shall knowingly make a false statement, or shall state as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1988. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to taxation, except such as is by law assessed in the manner provided or other law, but is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore, whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value thereof, and the tax shall be payable in and is a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the mile aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located other than the property of the owner of the iron ore, shall be subject to the provisions of clause three (3), three "b" (3b) and three "c" (3c) in the case now be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is located, the assessor shall take into account the existence of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be assessed as other real estate, and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, washing appurtenances of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for furnishing or equipment of a home of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 205, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided for class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturing machinery, tools and implements, and all other personal and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "b" (3b); and all unplatted real estate, except as provided for class three "c" (3c), and all other property not specified in class three (3) shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all farm implements, implements and farm machinery, shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3b. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all farm implements, implements and farm machinery, shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3c. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, that if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, that if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations, the assessed valuations of homesteads and exempted defined classifications now established by statute or by charter, class 3c and class 3c property shall be figured at twenty-five and ninety per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending and meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
