1940

DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

CASS County, Minn., 1940

Earl Kramer Assessor of the Town of Bull Moose

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1940, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. C. Brown County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. He shall list all his age and sound mind, being a resident of the county, all the moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all property of his principal, of which he shall have the care or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys and credits subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from persons residing out of the county.

3. The property of a minor child of tender years shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, or under trust.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as aforesaid.

Sec. 1993. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of merchants and of manufacturers of a town where it is manufactured shall be listed in such town, except such as is elsewhere carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of the taxing district and of this state as other logs are cut, and such taxes, shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which such logs are found to be within the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property remained with a farm tenant resident thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 219, Laws 1923. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property owned by and in use by members of the family at home, or for the furnishing or sustenance of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2003. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, and other buildings used for the storage of grain, and all land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be assessed and taxed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies within a fixed site in any city, village or borough in this state, shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to the place of the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed place of business in any city, village or borough in this state, shall be listed with and assessed by the township or city corporation in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of dwelling at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship, shall be listed and assessed at the guardian's residence, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees and receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of dwelling before the appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor, to present sworn list of his personal property, and shall be taxed for the whole of the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear that the property has been taxed for the current year in the property's another county.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be fixed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2019. Listing by assessor. Every person required to list personal property shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in the manner of all personal property of his principal, which he shall have under his control or which is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, trustee, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any corporation, association or company required to list and return as the original owner of property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation, shall not have made a true and full statement, he may take testimony of fact, fact, and concerning the property, or may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person at his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2022. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. Where requested, he shall sign and deliver to the county assessor a copy of the list of such property, with the value thereof, as listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 1996. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or making any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement of any fact material thereto which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any given exemption or other law tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If assessed, it will be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but if the iron ore is not assessed with the real estate, the taxes on the iron ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "b" (3b) and four (4) as the case may be. Provided, that if the owner of the iron ore or the owner of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufactured articles, except as provided in class three "a" (3a), money and moneyed capital, whether bonds or otherwise, except as provided by class three "b" (3b) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided in class four (4), shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all milch cows, and all other cattle, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class four (4) hereof, and all money and moneyed capital, whether bonds or otherwise, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value of any such tract of unplatted real estate shall be in excess of $1,000.00, the amount in excess of $1,000.00 shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value of any such tract of unplatted real estate shall be in excess of $2,000.00, the amount in excess of $2,000.00 shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, that the total and true value of such tract of unplatted real estate used for the purpose of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; and the total and true value of such tract of unplatted real estate used for the purpose of a homestead shall be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 4a. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) and class two (2) shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value of such tract of platted real estate used for the purpose of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; and the total and true value of such tract of platted real estate used for the purpose of a homestead shall be taxed for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining subjects of all officials based on assessed valuations, and of determining the limitations and net debt of any municipal corporation, the assessed valuations of classes three (3) and four (4) property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors or or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending and meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
