EXTRACTS FROM LAWS

(Section Numbers refer to Mason's Minn. Statutes 1927.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation—All real and personal property in the state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. All real property subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed every even-numbered year with reference to its value on May 1 preceding the assessment, and all real property becoming taxable in any intervening year shall be listed and assessed with reference to its value on May 1 of that year. Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

RELATING TO THE LISTING OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Sec. 1998. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when not taxable where the principal office of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, securities, franchises, royalties, and other property of such company or corporation.

2. He shall also list separately and in the name of his principal, all the property of such principal.

3. He shall also list separately and in the name of his principal, all moneys, credits, and other personal property owned, loaned, or deposited by him as the agent of such principal, and all property and credits due from or owing by any company, or corporation, all moneys acquired on his order, check, or draft, and credits due from or owing by any company, or corporation.

4. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

5. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

6. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

7. The property of any public or corporate, by the proper officer thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on. Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and delivered upon, other lands in the same county shall be assessed and taxed in the county, town, or district where found on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district to be transported out of the county and state outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and upon such logs and timber, which shall be taxed in the county where situated.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-residents. When the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated. Provided, that if the principal place of business of such non-resident owner of the property, and personal property used by him, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and household goods and furniture, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad land—Elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of a railroad company which are not in good repair, owned, operated and exclusively mortgaged by such company, shall be assessed and taxed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, the owner unknown.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Sec. 2013-1. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and electric light and power companies in this state outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing of the owner at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place of residence of the guardian, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assessors and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed where the place of listing before the assignment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1 of any year, shall be assessed in either in which he was first called upon by the assessor to assess moving into the state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, it shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the property is situated. Provided, that if the county board of equalization, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the determined in either case shall be binding on all concerned, if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when so determined by the county board of equalization, or the Minnesota tax commission, the assessor shall be governed by the blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon assessment rolls in the manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control, or held by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity in which he is required to include in his list, and shall sign any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as the capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. The assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete statement of such property, examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 2037. Assessor may enter premises. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter and examine any house, building, or structure, and, if he shall willfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2039. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of assessing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall willfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2040. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings tax, shall be assessed at the percentages of full and true value to be assessed, as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore, whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed at the place where the iron ore is located, and if mined, it shall be assessed at the rate aforesaid. If unmined, it shall be assessed in the county in which the iron ore is located, other than in a city of the real estate in which the iron ore is located, but within the provisions of clause three "c" which iron ore is located, other than in a city, or, if the real estate in which the iron ore is located, but within the provisions of clause three "c" (3b) and four (4) as the case may be, shall be classified and assessed as provided in said clause three and exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the assessed value of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the assessed value of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the assessed value of the two shall be assessed against the land or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the family or household, and all personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all kinds, together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) and three "b" (3b) above, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer, and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, shall be valued and assessed as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof. Provided, that if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, that if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net public debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓ and 40% of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof. (G. L. 1925, Chap. 319)
