DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

CASS County, Minn., APR 23 1941.

J. B. Brower Assessor of the Town of Gail

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1941, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. B. Brower County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1985. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock and other companies, and personal property, or the value thereof, owned by or assessable to him or her, or money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or as guardian or trustee of any other person, or as such agent, all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; if the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by the receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and citizens in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer, shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of the state shall be assessed and taxed in the county, town, or district where the same is cut; provided, that such logs shall be paid into the different funds of the county where the taking district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2005. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of personal property shall be a non-resident of the county, town or ward thereof, the same shall be listed and assessed in the farm or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of said farm is located.

Chap. 216, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company, and used in the business of such company, and not operated by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of dwelling at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2017. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of trading before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another in the time from May 1 to July 1, shall list the same in the place in which he first resided upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on July 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear that the property has been listed for tax in the current year in the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between towns in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties or places in different counties, by the Minnesota Department of Taxation; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if first listed.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in the manner of all property owned by the corporation, company or copartnership of which he is president or director. Every person required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accountant, or in any other fiduciary or representative capacity, shall make a separate statement for the income in any other capacity, or of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, just, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath touching the property so listed, or any other property required to list, and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or the principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1977. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property, or any person duly appointed by to the proper performance of his duties, may enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10906. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, being an officer or agent of any person, or being an officer or agent authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2004. Classification of Property. All real and personal property, shall be classified property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be assessed annually at fifty (50) per cent of the full and true value thereof, unless, if mined, it shall have been sold and the price of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), four (4) and five (5) of this section. In assessing any tract of land or real estate in which iron ore is located, the assessor shall determine the value of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract of land.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be listed and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery not exempt from taxation, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by classes one (1) and three "a" (3a) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in such agricultural pursuit, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be listed and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3c. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, further, that if such real estate be of a value exceeding $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof. Provided, further, that if the value of the unplatted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; except that real first $4,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject to and be rated for the purpose of raising funds for the payment of state indebtedness.

Class 3d. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value of such platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof. Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; except that said first $4,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject and be rated for the purpose of raising funds for the payment of state and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining estimates of all officials based on assessed valuations, all indebtedness, all limitations and net bonded and limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1985, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
