A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

_____ County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Minnesota Statutes 1949, as amended)

Sec. 272.01. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 273.01 * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 273.22. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every male of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his  personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all the real and other personal property in trust, leased, or otherwise controlled by him as agent or attorney, ***.

3. The property of a minor, child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whom benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the absence of the principal, or manufacturer.

Sec. 273.28. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where owner, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property; where listed. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of a merchant or in the business of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on ***.

Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district, where the farm is situated. If the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the grain therein, situated upon the right of way of the land of a railroad company which are not in good faith owned, leased or exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline Companies. Subdivision 1. Personal property of  pipeline companies engaged in the business of transporting natural gas, gasoline, or other petroleum products by pipe line shall be listed in the county, town, or district where the same is usually kept.

Subdivision 2. The personal property, consisting of the pipeline system, and all fixtures and equipment attached thereto, of pipeline companies and others engaged in the operations or business of transporting natural gas, gasoline or other petroleum products by pipe line, shall be listed, assessed and taxed as provided by law relating to taxation. This subdivision shall not apply to the assessment of the products transported through the pipe lines nor to the lines of local commercial gas companies or others engaged in the business of distributing gas to consumers at retail nor to pipe lines used by producers of oil to supply natural gas or other petroleum products necessary for such owner's own consumption and not for resale to others. On or before the fifteenth day of the month of March of each year the auditor of each county shall report the amount of such personal property assessed against each company in each district in which such property is located.

Sec. 273.35. Gas and Water Companies. The personal property of gas and water companies shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where located with regard to the location of the principal or other place of business of the company may be located.

Sec. 273.36. Electric Light and Power Companies to be assessed where property located. The personal property of electric light and power companies, having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated, without regard to where the principal or other place of business of the company is located.

Sec. 273.37. Electric Light and Power Companies and others supplying electric power. Subdivision 1. The personal property of electric light and power companies, and other individuals and partnerships supplying electric light and power, having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of any city, village and borough shall be listed and assessed in the district where situated, except as otherwise provided.

Subdivision 2. All transmission and distribution lines, and equipment attached thereto, having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs, and all poles, towers and other structures supporting such lines, shall be listed with and taxed as provided in Section 273.37, except that the commissioner of taxation, instead of the county auditor, shall perform the duties therein stated. The commissioner shall assess such property at the percentage of true and full value fixed by law; and, on or before the first Monday in June of each year, shall certify to the auditor of each county in which such property is located the amount of the assessment made against each company and person owning such property.

Sec. 273.23. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property shall state also the value of his property pertaining to his business as a merchant. No consignee shall be required to list for taxation any property the product of this state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.24. Manufactures. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state also the value of all articles purchased, received, or taken into his store for the purpose of being used, in whole or in part, in the business of manufacturing, assembling, rectifying or selling. Every manufacturer and person owning a manufacturing establishment of any kind shall list, as part of his manufacturer's stock, the value of all engines, machinery, tools, and implements used or designed to be used in any such process, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.25. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the time of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.26. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.45. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee for creditors shall be listed and assessed at the time and in the manner by law applicable.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor after such removal, and not in both; and the owner of such property at date shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the town or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place for listing personal property or where it cannot be listed in the manner provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and subscribe a statement of such property upon blanks furnished by him; a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also prepare separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which  he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor has reason to believe any person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property which should be listed; and, if such person shall refuse to be sworn or to answer touching the property of such person or his principal, according to the best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.68. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believe to be the true value thereof. Any person making the list shall sign and deliver to the person assessor a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property listed by him for tax.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized to assess property for taxation may, when necessary in the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, required or authorized by law to be made to a county auditor, or to any other person, or to the state auditor, willfully makes any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to ad valorem property tax and not subject to the gross earnings tax or the iron ore beneficiation tax shall be classified as follows:

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class 1 and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. ***

Class 1a. All direct products of the land and open hearth furnace, including pig iron, shall be classified and are not further classified, but shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" and class three "b", and all livestock, except as provided by class three "b", and all real estate, which is owned and occupied as a homestead by any person who is actually engaged in farming, except as provided by class three "b", shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof. All buildings and structures assessed as personal property, and all buildings and structures on real property assessed by the State Commissioner which is rural in character and devoted or adapted to agricultural use, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 25% per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 12 per cent of full and true value thereof.

* * * *

Subdivision 8. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules, and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural implements and machinery, and all trucks, tractors, and all motor vehicles, except those which shall constitute class three "a" and all be valued and assessed at 30 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes 1949, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1952 assessment by G. HOWARD SPAETH, Commissioner of Taxation.
