Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear that the property has been held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, the commissioner of Taxation, or place in dispute.

Sec. 273.50. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also list all property of which he is the owner, or which he is required to list in his capacity as agent or attorney, or which he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, assuming officer, partner, broker, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.60. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, corporation, or association, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.62. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of property, the assessor or assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter premises etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper discharge of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.01. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing a tax, or any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any matter or thing which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other tax is hereby classified for purposes of levying and collecting taxes as follows:

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore, whether mined or merchandised, shall be classified, valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If mined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. Iron ore which either (a) is mined by underground methods and piloed in stockpiles subsequent to August 1 of a calendar year and prior to the succeeding April 1 or (b) which contains phosphorus in excess of .150 per cent, dried analysis, or which is classified by the iron ore trade as siliceous, Manganiferous, Small Bessemer, or Small non-Bessemer with good cupbles mined by open pit methods, and in accordance with good cupbles practice, and which is subjected to a concentration other than crushing or screening or both to make it suitable for commercial blast furnace use, and which is so concentrated and placed in stockpile subsequent to August 1 of a calendar year and prior to the next succeeding May 1 for two taxable years, shall be mined and assessed in the taxing district where mined at the same amount per ton as it would be assessed if still unmined, and thereafter such ore in stockpiles shall be valued and assessed as mined iron ore, as otherwise provided by law. The real estate in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed as provided by law. Iron ore which is classified as "a," "b," and four, as the case may be, in assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and the assessment made on the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 1a. All direct products of the blast and open hearth furnaces that are utilized in the form produced and are not further processed, shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, pianos, and other musical instruments of members of the family and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "d" and all livestock, shall be classified and all of sorts together, with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, and all other materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "d" and all real estate, which is rural in character and devoted or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural use, except as provided by classes one and three "b" and four, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 34½ per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

* * *

Subdivision 8. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules, and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "d" and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1949 assessment by G. HOWARD SPAETH, Commissioner of Taxation.
