County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Minnesota Statutes 1945)

Sec. 272.01. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 273.01 * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 273.02. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his  personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property listed, leased, or otherwise controlled by him as agent or trustee.

3. The property of a minor, including his earnings, shall be listed by his parent or guardian, including such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whom benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as mentioned.

Sec. 273.26. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where owner, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 273.27. Certain personal property; where listed. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, pianos, phonographs, and other musical instruments, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on.

Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside on the farm, such property shall be listed in the town or district, where the farm is situated. If the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district wherein situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline companies. Personal property of  pipeline companies engaged in the business of transporting natural gas, gasoline, or other petroleum products  shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.36. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated ***.

Sec. 273.37. Personal property of electric light and power companies; outside of cities and villages. Personal property, including poles, wires, and other fixtures, of such companies in any city of the first class, of electric light and power companies, and other individuals and partnerships supplying electric power, having a fixed situs outside of the corporate limits of villages, cities, and boroughs, shall be listed with and assessed by the commissioner of taxation in the county where situated.

Sec. 273.23. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property at place of business, shall include in such listing all property held as consignee. No consignee shall be required to list for taxation any property the product of this state, or the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.24. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property at place of business, shall include in such listing, received or otherwise held for the purpose of being used, in whole or in part, in any process of manufacturing, combining, rectifying or refining. Every manufacturer and person owning a manufacturing establishment of any kind shall list, as part of his manufacturer's stock, all articles, all tools, implements, and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided in this chapter, and all real estate, which he may in the ordinary course of business, or in order to repair and improve his establishment or any kind shall list, as part of his manufacturer's stock, all articles, all tools, implements, and machinery, whether used or designed to be used in any such process, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of dwelling at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides and every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of dwelling before his appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall be assessed in the county, town, or district in which he first resides, unless, or district to which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in different counties, it shall be listed in such place as shall be determined by county, city, or village assessors, if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make set and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. All personal property in the possession or under the control of any person, personal property to be possessed or under his control when  he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, assuming officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.26. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself or others, or the officer or agent making such information, has not made a full, fair, and correctly list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.08. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain the list of any person or property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount or value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter dwelling, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation, may, when necessary to obtain information, enter any dwelling, under any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made, shall knowingly make any false statement or any test or representation of any material fact, or shall knowingly make any false statement which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to other than ad valorem tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other tax shall be hereby classified for purposes of assessment as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Class 1a. Class 1b. All real and personal property, whether owned or nominal, shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located. Iron ore mined from underground mines, and iron ore mined from open pit or underground methods and placed in stockpiles subsequent to August 1 of a calendar year and before the following May 1, and which contains phosphorus in excess of .100 per cent, dried analysis, or which is classified by the iron ore trade as siliceous, Manganiferous, Nonadd Bessemer, or Nonadd concentrates with good cost to refund by open pit methods, and is concentrated and dried in a plant which has a capacity of producing a concentration whose class consists of screening or both to make it suitable for commercial blast furnace use, and which is so concentrated and placed in stockpile subsequent to August 1 of a calendar year and before the next succeeding May 1 for two taxable years, shall be valued and assessed at the same amount per ton as is provided in this section when mined at the same amount per ton as is stockpiled shall be valued and assessed as mined iron ore, as otherwise provided by law. The residential and which iron ore is located, other than the ore, and the residential and agricultural property in the taxing district shall be allowed three (3) and four, as the case may be. In assessing any lines or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined separately and the sum of the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 1a. All direct products of the blast and open hearth furnaces that are utilized in the farm produced and are not further processed, shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, pianos, phonographs, and other musical instruments, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" and class three "d", shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 40 per cent of the full and true value thereof. All tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "d" and all real estate, which is used in the ordinary course of business, or in order to repair and improve the establishment, except as provided in class one and class "3a" agricultural use, except as provided in class three "d" shall be valued and assessed at 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

* * * *

Subdivision 8. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules, and oxen used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, and machinery used by the owner for agricultural purposes, and all real estate used exclusively for farm purposes, shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1949 assessment by G. HOWARD SPAETH, Commissioner of Taxation.
