H. Sherven Assessor of the Town of Lina

According to the requirements of law, I hereewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1939, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

L. Sumner County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing thereon, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, accounts, stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), and all other personal property, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or ward shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a bank, public or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is conducted, or where such manufacturer from limits within, and designed for the transportation of, the state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district of the state as other taxes are paid, the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside upon the farm, the property shall be listed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed in the town or district, or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is.

Chap. 912, Laws 1929. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2025. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated, or controlled by persons, firms, or corporations, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, in the name unknown.

Sec. 2013. Personal property of electric light and power companies. All personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed site in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated within the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be taxed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission to the extent provided herein.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place of their notice; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of living before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property which shall be moved from one town or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be entered in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person another town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Place of listing in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or owner it can not be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as listed as if first located.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property shall make and file with the assessor a list of all property upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, which shall be a true and complete statement in the manner of all personal property to be assessed in the county, and every person this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent, attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, but the assessor may accept the verbal statement in the name of all property of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation, or any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and true statement of the property owned by such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property so required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure of the property, the assessor may, and shall, if any taxpayer or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount, so ascertained and deliver true value thereof. When required, he shall deliver to the person so listing property a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to use proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing taxes, shall wilfully make a false statement of any material matter, or in any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1982. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings tax, shall be ratably classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land so assessed, "The real estate in which iron ore is located other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the use to which it is put, and the value of such iron ore shall in no case may be, in assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately in the assessor's book, and the ore shall be assessed at its value.

Provided, further, that the first $2,000.00 full and true value of such tract of platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall constitute class two "2" (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and true value shall certain subject and be levied for the purpose of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and subsequent to the time of the passage of this act.

Class 9. Assessors shall use a uniform interior of all officials based on classed, valuations and of depreciation, the limitations and not bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 9 and class 10 property shall be listed at 25% per cent and of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 10. All property not specifically classified and assessed shall constitute class 10 and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
