2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, agent, or other person, all such property held by him as agent, otherwise controlled by him as his agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all money loaned or invested by him, and all bonds, stocks, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the executor, administrator, or trustee.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufactures and others in the hands of agents, by such agent in the name of his principal, or merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of merchants and manufacturers, including stock in trade, shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and adjacent to, the boundaries of this state, shall be listed and assessed in the taking district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taking district and of the state as other taxes are paid, which taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall be assessed against the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated; if such farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, pianos, musical instruments, phonographs, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., as railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of a railroad company, and used in the business of such company, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town, or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2009. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light the power companies having a fixed site in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Chap. 206, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities, villages and boroughs. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed site outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota Tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of minors under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the ward resides, and that of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place at his option, after the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he can satisfy the assessor he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the place where any personal property should be listed, it shall be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, a statement, verified by his oath, of the property, real and personal, owned by him on May 1 of the ensuing year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all property held by him as agent or under his control, when he is required by law or permitted to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of stock in any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath touching the property, real and personal, required to be listed, and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2031. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, or such portion thereof as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the assessment, with the amount of the property assessed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwelling, etc., any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10396. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement which is material and which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other tax tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as part of the real estate in which it is located, but if the real estate in which it is located is not owned by the owner of more than one ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "A" (3A) and four (4) as the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. Household goods and furniture, including clocks, pianos, musical instruments, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Class 3A. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all farming implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit, shall constitute class three "A" (3A) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class three "A" (3A) and class four (4) shall constitute class three "B" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 4. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) $4,000.00, in excess of such sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof. Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value for each lot of platted real estate used for the purpose of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes, and the first $4,000.00 full and true value of platted real estate used for the purpose of residence shall be exempt from taxation for all purposes, and shall remain subject to and be taxed for the purposes of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 5b. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) and class four (4) shall constitute class five "B" (5b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value of any such platted real estate shall exceed the sum of $4,000.00 such excess shall be valued and assessed as provided by class four (4) hereof. Provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes, except that and first $4,000.00 full and true value of platted real estate used for the purpose of residence shall be exempt for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on population, the population of any city, village or borough shall be conclusive, any limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 5c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 6. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class six (6) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
