DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

CASS County, Minn. APR 24 1934.

Ben Brown Assessor of the Town of Lind IN THE COUNTY AFORESAID.

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Book for the said Town for the year 1934, and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereunto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

L. Simon County Auditor.

EXTRACTS FROM LAWS

(Section Numbers refer to Mason's Minn. Statutes 1927.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation—All real and personal property in the state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. All real property subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed every even-numbered year with reference to its value on May 1, and if personal property shall be taxable any intervening year shall be listed and assessed with reference to its value on May 1 of that year. Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

RELATING TO THE LISTING OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Sec. 1992. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other associations, companies, corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in like manner, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise disposed of by him as his agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check, or draft, and credits due from any person, company, or corporation, and all moneys in charge.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in executive charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where such business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber, cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1 of such year, and such logs and timber shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district where found on May 1 of such year in the county, low moving into the state, and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes and shall be a lien thereon, shall be listed in the town where the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, unless listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 2002-1. Household goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal adornments, ornaments, and implements for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2006. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, or the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and extensively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Sec. 2013-1. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his decedent.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he was first called upon by the assessor, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, such property shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 2019. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2025. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on the day 1 of the current year. He shall also, upon separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control, or belonging to any other person, company, or corporation, but he shall not be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and income for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete statement of the property required to be listed by him, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information, and for this purpose may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain the list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess it in the same or such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of such statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwelling, etc. Every officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10004. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or collecting taxes, shall willfully make any statement as to any material fact which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1995. Classification of property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore, whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value thereof. The real estate in which it is located, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which an iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified with the other real estate with the provisions of classes three (3) and four (4) hereof, as the case may be. In assessing and determining the value of such real estate, the assessed value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the property.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal adornments, ornaments, and implements, actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all kinds, all furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by class four (4) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof. Provided, that if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓% and 40% of the true and full value thereof, respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof. (G. L. 1923, Chap. 359)
