Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another county, town or district after May 1, shall be assessed in either in which he first resided after the assessment. A person moving into this state from another state or country after May 1 shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for sale of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. When property listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place for listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, it shall be listed in the county, town, or district for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, towns, or districts in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor a statement of all the personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements of the property held by him in his possession or under his control which by terms, guardian, trustee, receiver, or in any other capacity; but no person shall be required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, trustee, receiver, or in any other capacity, property belonging solely, nor required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any corporation owned by him; it is provided in lieu and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2021. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full list, and consider the thereof, may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property of such person, or of any other person, company or corporation he may discover under oath, if such person may list the property of such person or his principal according to the best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of the personal property of any person, company, or corporation, the assessor shall, in such case, to the best of his information and belief, as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall furnish a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter premises. The assessor is authorized by law to assess property for taxation and for a complete and proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, authorized by law, statement, oral or written, which is required or any tax or assessment, or to obtain any abatement or reduction of any tax or assessment, or to obtain any money or property, or public any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.
