Philip Kowalsky County Auditor of the Meadow Brook

According to the requirements of law, I hereunto deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books of the Meadow Brook for the year 1937, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. Olson County Auditor

Meadow Brook

Extracts from Laws, Relating to the Listing of Personal Property (Section Numbers refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927)

Sec. 2014. Property exempt to soldiers.—All real estate owned by a soldier, sailor, marine or nurse, or his widow, or his minor children, or his or her aged father or mother, shall be exempt from taxation, to the extent of one hundred dollars.

Sec. 2015. Personal property.—Personal property shall be listed and assessed as follows: Money, credits, bonds, stocks, or other evidences of indebtedness, shall be listed in the name of the owner, if a resident of this state, and shall be assessed at the place of his residence, if he has a place of business in the county, city, or village in which he resides, and if not, then at the place where such business is carried on; if such owner be a resident of this state and has no place of business in the county, city, or village in which he resides, then such property shall be listed in the county, city, or village in which he resides; if such owner be a resident of this state and has no place of business nor place of residence in the state, then such property shall be listed in the county, city, or village in which such owner may be found; if such owner be a resident of this state and has no place of business nor place of residence in the state, and such property be in charge of a trustee, then such property shall be listed in the county, city, or village in which such trustee resides; if such owner be a resident of this state and has no place of business nor place of residence in the state, and such property be not in charge of a trustee, then such property shall be listed in the county, city, or village in which such property may be found; if such owner be a resident of this state and has no place of business nor place of residence in the state, and such property be not in charge of a trustee, and be not found in any county, city, or village in the state, then such property shall be listed in the county, city, or village in which such owner last resided in the state; if such owner be a resident of this state and has no place of business nor place of residence in the state, and such property be not in charge of a trustee, and such owner be not found in any county, city, or village in the state, and such owner last resided in the state, then such property shall be listed in the county, city, or village in which such owner may be found; if such owner be a resident of this state and has no place of business nor place of residence in the state, and such property be not in charge of a trustee, and such owner be not found in any county, city, or village in the state, and such owner last resided in the state, and such owner be not found in any county, city, or village in the state, then such property shall be listed in the county, city, or village in which such owner last resided in the state. The personal property of a ward or minor shall be listed in the name of the guardian, if any, and if not, then in the name of the parent or other person having the custody of the ward or minor. The personal property of a lunatic, idiot, or person of unsound mind, shall be listed in the name of the guardian, if any, and if not, then in the name of the person having the custody of the person of such lunatic, idiot, or person of unsound mind. The personal property of a decedent shall be listed in the name of the executor or administrator, if any, and if not, then in the name of the person in the possession thereof. The personal property of a partnership shall be listed in the name of the firm, company, or association, where such is the usual place of business thereof, and if not, then in the name of the person in the possession thereof. The personal property of a corporation shall be listed in the name of the president, vice president, cashier, or other officer, or agent, or person in the possession thereof, and if such corporation be a resident of this state and has no place of business in the county, city, or village in which it resides, then such property shall be listed in the county, city, or village in which such officer, agent, or person in the possession thereof may be found; if such corporation be a resident of this state and has no place of business nor place of residence in the state, then such property shall be listed in the county, city, or village in which such officer, agent, or person in the possession thereof may be found; if such corporation be a resident of this state and has no place of business nor place of residence in the state, and such property be not in charge of a trustee, then such property shall be listed in the county, city, or village in which such property may be found; if such corporation be a resident of this state and has no place of business nor place of residence in the state, and such property be not in charge of a trustee, and be not found in any county, city, or village in the state, then such property shall be listed in the county, city, or village in which such corporation last resided in the state; if such corporation be a resident of this state and has no place of business nor place of residence in the state, and such property be not in charge of a trustee, and such corporation be not found in any county, city, or village in the state, and such corporation last resided in the state, then such property shall be listed in the county, city, or village in which such corporation may be found.

Sec. 2016. Where listed in case of doubt.—In case of doubt as to the place where any property should be listed and assessed, the assessor may, in his discretion, place such property on the assessment roll in the county, city, or village in which he shall be informed and believe such property should be listed and assessed, and such property shall be so listed and assessed, and the assessor shall be entitled to the usual fees therefor.

Sec. 2017. Property in two or more places.—Personal property which may be in two or more places at the time of the assessment, may be listed and assessed in any place in which it may be found, and shall be so listed and assessed if it be found in the county, city, or village in which the owner resides, if he be a resident of this state.
