1943.

George Bailey Assessor of the Town of Barclay

Assessor of the Town of Barclay

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said

Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. C. Peterson County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Minnesota Statutes 1941)

Sec. 272.01. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 273.01 * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 273.22. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following: 1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list the real and personal property of himself, his wife, his minor children, and other persons controlled by him as agent or attorney. * * *

Sec. 273.27. Certain persons and property where listed. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and other personal property, shall be listed at the residence of the owner, or at the place where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 273.29. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of a merchant or manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on * * *

Sec. 273.30. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of a farm is a non-resident, the real and personal property of the farm shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated. Provided, that if the farm is owned by a partnership, the real and personal property shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.32. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon any railroad, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the same are used and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where the same are used.

Sec. 273.36. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. The personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed plant in any city, village, or town, shall be listed and assessed where situated * * *

Sec. 273.37. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property, other than personal property lying inside of the corporate limits of any city, village, or town, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the same are used and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where the same are used.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a person under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the place where the guardian resides and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property removed from one county, town, or district to another. Personal property removed from one county, town, or district to another shall be listed and assessed in the town or district to which it is removed.

Section 273.03. Minnesota Statutes 1941. Assessment: Mode. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out in the real and personal property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated, opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Commission of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meetings, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from the place to which he is appointed to attend such meetings, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

Sec. 273.58. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall be listed in the town or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall have cause to doubt the truth of any statement made by or for any other person, company, or corporation, he may make a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person or corporation, and may require him to make a sworn statement under oath, and if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or the principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.69. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of personal property, the assessor shall assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall show the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.70. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling or building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required by law to be made for the purpose of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, shall be guilty of a crime if he makes any false statement which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property.—Subdivision 1. How assessed. Personal property shall be classified for taxation as follows: Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined herby classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section. Subdivision 2. Class 1. DEAR SIR:

Note that on page 16 - Sec. 31 the SE⁴ of NE⁴ was assessed at 212. Also note that this has since been divided into three parcels as marked on Page 16 with an X. Will you please divide the 212 assessed value between these three pieces as you think best according to the acreage and value of the property.

Yours very truly,
L. C. PETERSON,
County Auditor, Cass County, Minn.
