Sec. 2008. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of any farm or farming lands, or other property, shall not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated; Provided, that if the owner of such farm or farming lands or other property shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 312, Laws 1933. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipping of a dwelling house, not kept under the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1929, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2016. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of a railroad company, and used and kept for the purpose of operating and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2017. Personal property of electric light and power companies. All other personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of such company is located.

Chap. 306, Laws 1929. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any town outside of cities or villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the residence of the executor or administrator.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignees or receivers shall be listed and assessed at the place of living before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place. If such property shall be removed from one county to another in this state, or from another state between and shall then the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he has paid for tax of the current year on the property in another county.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property, or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, it shall be listed in the place where it is, if in different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, and when distributed such taxes shall be so abolished as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, such blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in the manner of all personal property of which he is trustee, or in any other fiduciary or false character, he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or in any other fiduciary or false character, and the property of no person shall be required to be listed, or his administrator, phase of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examinations under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not listed the same, or any part thereof, or has not listed property of a person under oath in regard to the amount of the property so required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person, or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2031. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and shall make the assessment of such amount as he believes is proper; and when the assessment is completed, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property as listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. An officer assessing property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwellings, outbuilding, or enclosure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10356. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, being a public officer, or being a person, or a member of a company authorized by law to be made as a basis of income or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement of the amount of income, which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 1999. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings tax or license tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the entire forty acres. The real estate in which iron ore is found, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "A" (3A) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is found, the value of the surface rights, and the value of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land assessable of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the separate of the ore shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property owned used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipping of a dwelling house, not kept under the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1929, shall constitute class two (2), and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class three "A" (3A), stocks of merchandise of all sorts (except those specifically listed and taxed therein), manufacturers' materials and manufactured stock, except as provided in class three "A" (3A), and all unplatted real estate, except as provided in class three "A" (3A), shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all horses, bulls and cows used exclusively for breeding purposes, and all other live stock used exclusively for dairying and for breeding purposes, and all personal property exempt under the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1929, shall constitute class three "A" (3A) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All personal property, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is not specifically classified and taxed, shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $200.00 in the case of any one person, the same shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 5; and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $6,000.00 in the case of any one person, the same shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuation, the assessed valuation of all platted and unplatted real estate shall be computed at the rate of twenty per cent and ten per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 6. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class six (6) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
