Where the owner of farming or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside within the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is located, if the farm be situated in one town or district. It shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Sec. 273.31. Elevators, etc., as railroad. All elevators and warehouses, machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company, shall be listed and assessed as a part of such railroad property contained in such company's main office, and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.

Sec. 273.33. Pipeline Companies. Subdivision 1. Personal property of  pipeline companies engaged in the business of transporting crude petroleum or other petroleum products  shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the same is usually kept.

Subdivision 2. The personal property, consisting of the pipeline system of mains, lines and equipment attached thereto, of pipeline companies engaged in the operation or business of transporting crude petroleum or other petroleum products by pipeline, shall be listed with and assessed in the county, town, or district where such pipeline system is located. Such pipeline system shall be assessed with the personal property of such companies and in the time of local commercial gas companies engaged in the business of transporting gas, shall be considered as equal and not to pipelines used by the owner for such owner's own consumption, other petroleum products particularly mentioned, on the fifteenth day of November, the commissioner shall certify to the county auditor of each county, the amount of such personal property assessment against each company in each district in which such property is located.

Sec. 273.35. Gas and Water Companies. The personal property of gas and water companies shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where such property is situated, or where the principal or other place of business of the company is located.

Sec. 273.36. Electric Light and Power Companies. The personal property of electric light and power companies shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where such property is situated. Personal property of electric light and power companies engaged in the business of transporting electric energy by means of wires, poles and towers, shall be listed with and assessed by the Commissioner of Taxation in the manner provided by law. The commissioner shall assess such property at the percentage of its actual value as shall be determined by him before the fifteenth day of November, shall certify to the auditor of each county in which such property is located the amount of the assessment made against each company and person owning such property.

Sec. 273.37. Peddlers, etc. Every merchant required to pay a license fee shall make statement of his business and property to his business as a merchant. No assessor shall be required to list for taxation any property the product of this state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the sole purpose of being stored or forwarded, if he has no interest in such property, and receives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.41. Manufactures. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall list the same in the town or district where the same is or other place for the purpose of being made, or otherwise. Every person of manufacturing, combining, rectifying or refining, shall list the property used in such business, including materials of every kind and shall list, as part of his manufactures, tools or implements used for carrying on such business, machinery, tools, and implements used for carrying on such business, and other property, except that furniture, be considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of a minor and inadvertently shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides or where the property is under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of business before the appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removed from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall, if required, make statement to the assessor of the town or district. A person moving into this state from another state, or from any other county in his own state shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, in the county, town or district in which he shall reside on the first day of July of the current year, or in the county, town or district in which he shall reside on the first day of July of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of death. In case of death or in the proper place of listing personal property, or in case of doubt as to the place of listing personal property, or if between places in the same county the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization, and if between counties, by the commissioner of taxation, or the Commissioner of Taxation **.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property shall make and file with the assessor a list of the property, such lists verified by him, or, if not verified, if the property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make and file with the assessor a list of all personal property in the possession or under his control on May 1 of the current year, required to be listed for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, or in any other capacity , every administrator, parent, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.05. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a fair, full and complete list of the property required to be listed, under oath in regard to the amount of the property so to be listed, and such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may, and shall, summon such person or persons in his discretion to be his witnesses and information.

Section 273.06. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such value as he shall deem just and fair, and shall make a return thereof, he shall call and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to ascertain the value of property, enter any dwelling, house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 610.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of listing or reducing any tax or assessment, or in any affidavit, or in any other form or manner which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property.—Subdivision 1. Real property, all real and personal property subject to a general property tax, shall be assessed at its actual value, except as otherwise provided, classified for purpose of taxation as provided in this law, as is hereby provided.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) percent of its true and full value.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. Peat, or the blast and open hearth furnaces that are suitable in the form produced and are not further processed, shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 15 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 3. All household goods and furniture, including musical instruments, sewing machines, and other personal property used in the home and in the household economy, actually used by the occupant of the family residence, or for the furnishing or equipping of the family residence, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 5. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three * * * and class twelve, stocks of merchandise or all soils together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, machinery, implements, tools, livestock, poultry, all horses, mules and jennets and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "d" * * * and all buildings and structures used for agricultural purposes, except those specifically exempt by Minnesota or the United States Government, which shall be classified and deemed to adaptable to rural use, no necessarily agricultural, shall constitute class five (5) and shall be valued and assessed at 33⅓ per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 5a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof. Provided, that class 5a shall not be deemed to include products now exempt from taxation. * * *

Subdivision 8. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules and jennets, and all machinery, implements, tools, all agricultural tools, implements, and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, used in pursuit, shall constitute class three "d" and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 6. All property not included in the preceding classes, shall constitute class six (6) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 270.07. The commissioner of taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.03. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks included in each description of property.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.04. The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $7.50 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of seven cents per mile, and each board of review member the sum of $6.00 per day and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
