3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, or by the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as aforesaid.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property of merchants and manufacturers, and of persons in business, shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed and listed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all such logs and timber shall be subject to taxation in the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall be paid before the removal from the boundaries of the state shall and such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated; and if such farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 312, Laws 1935. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner or family for household purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exceed under the provisions of Chapter 285, Laws of 1933, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2016. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses for the storage of grain, elevators therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which has been granted aid, and operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known; and, if not known, in the name of such company.

Sec. 2018. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated in the town or city in which the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306, Laws 1935. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any township in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated, be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2020. Property of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 2021. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, if a resident of the county under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2025. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of letting before his appointment.

Sec. 2027. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property which shall be removed, or shall be moved from one district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in the district in which he is first called upon for the assessor. A person coming into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year in the county or district elsewhere.

Sec. 2028. Where listed in case of death. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property, the same shall be listed and assessed in the county provided, if between places in the county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county commissioners, subject to review by the tax court of appeals, if there is different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2030. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property shall make and subscribe a written statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, which statement shall be a true statement in like manner of all personal property in the state assessable to him, as contained which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation, and every agent, trustee, guardian, servant, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but a corporation may make such statement by its president, cashier, or of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2032. Examiners under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath, touching the property which such person is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person, or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount and value, and if such property be in a building, or be concealed, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary, enter any dwelling house, store, shop, warehouse, or other building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 2034. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made on a basis for taxation or assessment, any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 1988. Classification of Property. What percentage of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate herein provided for iron ore. Iron ore in stockpiles shall be treated as iron ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "b" (3b) and four (4) as the same may be applicable to the property upon which the stockpile of iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore contained in the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All personal property actually used by the owner for musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner or family for household purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the household residence, not exceed under the provisions of Chapter 285, Laws of 1933, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts and kinds, including manufactured articles, except as provided in class "three" materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class two (2) and class three "b" (3b) herein, except as provided in classes six (1) and three "b" (3b) herein, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used for the owner in agricultural pursuits, except as provided under the provisions of Chapter 285, Laws of 1933, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class six (1) herein, and all platted real estate, except as provided herein, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, that if the value of any such real estate shall exceed $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, that if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining the limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by law, the assessed value of class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 33⅓ per cent and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
