DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,

Cass County, Minn., 1940

B. E. Nichols Assessor of the Town of Remer

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1940, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the laws prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. E. Brown County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing thereon, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1; and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock, and all other personal property owned by him, or under his control, or in which he is interested, as principal or agent, or as executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee, or in any other capacity, or in the joint name of himself and family, or in the name of any other person, or in the name of any firm or copartnership of which he is a member, or in the name of any corporation of which he is president, or in the name of any other person, firm, or corporation, when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state, money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all personal property, personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise contracted by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by the guardian of the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a ward shall be listed by his guardian; of a trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that the stock of merchandise in transit and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and listed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all of the taxing districts in which the different funds of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such property, and such property shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2011. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, such property shall be listed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed in proportion to the number of acres in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2024. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, and other structures thereto adjacent upon the land of any railroad company, which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, in the name of the company.

Sec. 2027. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or township in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated, in the name of the company, or principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 200, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any town or district in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated, and assessed by the Minnesota Tax Commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of the last residence of the decedent.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed in the town where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of trading before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another county, town, or district in this state, shall return into the place in which he is first called upon by the assessor to assess, a statement of the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear that such property has been held for the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commissioner, and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, or which he shall have had in possession or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but if such property be held by such person in the ordinary course of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2050. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall deem it necessary, he may examine any person, company, or corporation, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full answer to such inquiries, the assessor may make a return against such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2032. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, value and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. Where required, he shall sign and deliver to the county auditor a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1927. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or enclosure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10206. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in any statement or report required by law, which is required or authorized by law to be made, or, knowingly, by inducing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make a false statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2102. Classification of Property. All real and personal property, or a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or license fees, tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the land upon which it is located, according to the rule aforesaid.  real estate in which iron ore is located other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the classification of such property as it would be if there was no iron ore in it. In assessing any lands or lots of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately in the assessor's book, and the assessment thereof shall be made.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used for the enter for personal and family purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Livestock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class six (6), tools, implements and machinery, all stocks together with the furniture and fixtures of merchandise establishments, notes and miscellaneous articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class four (4), and all personal property not specifically taxed or provided by classes one (1) and three (3) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer or owner in any agricultural pursuit, shall constitute class three (3) for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purpose of a homestead, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof, provided, further, that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such tract of unplatted real estate shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes, except that said first $4,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject to and be taxed for the purposes of paying the principal and interest of any bonds issued or debts incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

Class 3c. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof, provided, that the first full value in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof, and that the first $4,000.00 full and true value of such tract of platted real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes except that said first $4,000.00 full and true value shall remain subject to and be taxed for the purposes of paying the principal and interest of any bonds issued or debts incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, the assessed valuation of platted real estate shall be forty (40) per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
