Sec. 273.23. Merchants; Consignees. Every merchant required to list his property shall also list the value of his property pertaining to his business as a merchant. No consignee shall be required to list for taxation any property the product of this state, nor the value of any property consigned to him from any other place for the purpose of being sold, in whole or in part, in which he has no interest in such property, and derives no profit from its sale.

Sec. 273.26. Manufacturers. Every manufacturer required to list his property shall state upon the value of all articles purchased, received, or otherwise held for the purpose of being used, in whole or in part, in any process of manufacturing, compiling, rectifying or refining. Every manufacturer and person owning a manufacturing establishment shall list the value of the product of the manufacturer's shop, the value of all engines, machinery, tools, and implements used or designed to be used in any such process, except such fixtures as have been considered real property.

Sec. 273.44. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of living at the time of his death.

Sec. 273.45. Persons under Guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 273.46. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of living before his appointment.

Sec. 273.47. Property removed between May and July. The assessor of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor of personal property, and the person so removing from one county, town, or district shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax at the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed in the county where situated, it shall be listed and assessed in the county in the district and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, but persons may make separate statements in the manner of all personal property in their respective towns or districts. Every person required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full and true statement of the property required to be listed, or shall be informed in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.68. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall furnish the person so listing property a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.20. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer employed by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary in the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who in making any statement, oral or written, which is required by any assessor, or by any board of levy of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, with shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax shall be subject to any gross earnings or other tax in lieu thereof, classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore, whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. Iron ore which either (a) is mined by underground methods and placed in stockpiles subsequent to August 1 of a calendar year and shall be in such stockpiles on May 1 of the next succeeding year, or (b) is in the process of 150 per cent, dried crude, or is otherwise classified by the Iron ore trade as siliceous, Manganiferous, Kraft Brasmer, or Hematite non-Reserve ore, or (b) is mined by open pit methods, and in accordance with good engineering and metallurgical practice, requires concentration, elutriation crushing or screening or both to make it suitable for consumption in the blast furnace, shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of its assessed value, if not a calendar year and prior to the next succeeding May 1 for the taxable years after being mined only, shall be listed and assessed in the taxing district where mined at the same amount per ton as it would be assessed if still unmined. Iron ore which is not mined in the year in which it is assessed, or in a subsequent year, or otherwise provided by law. The real estate in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes Lime, Class "D," and four, as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist, the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the surface thereof, shall be determined by the use of the ordinary and usual methods of expansion and the aggregate of the ton shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 1a. All direct products of the blast and open hearth furnaces that are utilized in the form produced and are not further processed, shall constitute class 1a and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "A", and class three "C," stocks of merchandise of all sorts together with the furniture and fixtures, machinery, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery used by the owner therewith, except as provided by class three "A" and all real estate, which is rural in character and devoted or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural use, except as provided by classes one and three "A" hereof, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 33⅓ per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "A" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 6. Class 3c. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules, and other animals used for agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "C" and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 8. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 270.07. The Commissioner of Taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes 1945, Section 273.03, as amended. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks, included in each description of property.

The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $6.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county-seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1949 assessment by G. HOWARD SPAETH, Commissioner of Taxation.
