DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

Cass County, Minn., 1937

Cassel Brown Assessor of the Town of Shingobee

According to the requirements of law, I hereunto deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books of the Town of Shingobee for the year 1937, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

L. A. Chase
County Auditor

Extracts from Laws, Relating to the Listing of Personal Property. (Section Numbers refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927)

Sec. 2194. Property subject to taxation.—All real and personal property in this state, not exempt from taxation, shall be assessed and taxed.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 2195. Time for assessment.—Every person and every agent, guardian, trustee, or other person having the care or control of property in this state, on the first day of March, in each year, shall be assessed for all the real and personal property of the kind and character hereinafter mentioned, belonging to him, or which shall come into his hands, control, or care, on the said first day of March, to the county, town, village, or city in which such property is situated, or such person shall be taxable for such property in the place in which he shall be assessed for his polls or occupation.

Sec. 2196. Property of a minor.—Every person, being the guardian or other person having the care or control of the property of a minor, shall be taxable for such property in the place in which such minor shall be taxable.

Sec. 2197. Property of a decedent.—When the property of a decedent is in the hands of an executor or administrator, it shall be assessed and taxed in the place in which such decedent was taxable at the time of his death.

Sec. 2198. Property in the hands of receivers, etc.—The property of a corporation in the hands of a receiver, or of persons who have purchased the same under a mortgage or other lien, shall be assessed and taxed in the place in which such property would be taxable if in the hands of the owners thereof.

Sec. 2199. Property of a bankrupt.—When the property of a bankrupt is in the hands of his assignee, it shall be assessed and taxed in the place in which such property would be taxable if in the hands of the bankrupt.

Sec. 2200. Property in the hands of agents, trustees, etc.—Every person, being the agent, trustee, or other person having the care or control of property belonging to a non-resident, shall be taxable for such property in the place in which he shall be assessed for his own property.

Sec. 2201. Property of non-residents.—Every person, being the agent, guardian, trustee, or other person having the care or control of property belonging to a non-resident, shall be taxable for such property in the place in which he shall be assessed for his own property.

Sec. 2202. Property in the hands of agents, trustees, etc.—Every person, being the agent, trustee, or other person having the care or control of property belonging to a non-resident, shall be taxable for such property in the place in which he shall be assessed for his own property.

Sec. 2203. Property of a non-resident.—Every person, being the agent, guardian, trustee, or other person having the care or control of property belonging to a non-resident, shall be taxable for such property in the place in which he shall be assessed for his own property.

Sec. 2204. Property in the hands of agents, trustees, etc.—Every person, being the agent, trustee, or other person having the care or control of property belonging to a non-resident, shall be taxable for such property in the place in which he shall be assessed for his own property.

Sec. 2205. Property of a non-resident.—Every person, being the agent, guardian, trustee, or other person having the care or control of property belonging to a non-resident, shall be taxable for such property in the place in which he shall be assessed for his own property.

Sec. 2206. Property in the hands of agents, trustees, etc.—Every person, being the agent, trustee, or other person having the care or control of property belonging to a non-resident, shall be taxable for such property in the place in which he shall be assessed for his own property.

Sec. 2207. Property of a non-resident.—Every person, being the agent, guardian, trustee, or other person having the care or control of property belonging to a non-resident, shall be taxable for such property in the place in which he shall be assessed for his own property.

Sec. 2208. Property in the hands of agents, trustees, etc.—Every person, being the agent, trustee, or other person having the care or control of property belonging to a non-resident, shall be taxable for such property in the place in which he shall be assessed for his own property.
