According to the requirements of law, I hereewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1929 containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

A. A. Cater County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to General Statutes, 1923.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares or certificates of stock, and all other personal property, and the property of such company or corporation if not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the town, city, village or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer, shall be listed in the town or district where such business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed in the county where such lands are situated; and the taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2016. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of personal property employed in farming, shall not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, pianos, phonographs, and furniture, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or enjoyment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2025. Elevators, etc., as railroad. All elevators and warehouses for the storage of grain, and all other property used in the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be assessed as railroad property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2026. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed site in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated in the corporate limits of such city, village or borough, and if not so situated, in the town or district where the principal place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed site outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2016. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2016. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and that of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of another intervening place, and from such place to another, or from place to place, and from place to place, shall be assessed in either place in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list his personal property in the place in which he resides, and if he has no fixed place of abode, in the place in which he shall ordinarily assess to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be ascertained in the place in which the owner resides, or in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list personal property shall make and subscribe a written or printed schedule thereof, or list, which shall be affirmed of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and shall be in the form prescribed by the assessor, in the manner of all personal property in his possession, or under his control on said date; this chapter he is required to list for taxation, including all money, credits, bonds, stocks, notes, security, administrator, receiver, executing officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but excepting the property of a corporation, which shall be listed in the name of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2023. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for taxation is not, of any company, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list of the property owned by such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property to be returned to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full and complete list, the assessor may examine such person under oath, or his principal accountant in his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such rate as shall seem to be the true value thereof. When reported, he shall make a return of the property so listed, with a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, storehouse, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10300. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made for the purpose of assessing any property or any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1992. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to a special taxation or other less tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore, whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the true and full value thereof, and shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate upon which the same is located, at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which the same is located, but other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3) and four (4) as the case may be. The value of the ore shall be the value thereof at the place it is known to exist, the assessable value of the ore relative of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land in which it is located, shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, pianos, phonographs, and furniture, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or enjoyment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided for in class two (2) and class four (4), all money, all credits, including all the furniture and fixtures used therein, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery used in any trade or otherwise, except as provided in class three (3) and four (4), and all personal property not specifically provided for in class one (1) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 4. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, General Statues of Minnesota, 1973. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
