DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

CASS County, Minn., APR 15 1936.

Arthur W. Hale Assessor of the Towns of Hofman

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1936, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

L. Strom

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1994. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all the personal property owned by him or the stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all money and other personal property owned, loaned, or invested by him as agent, or in any other way as the agent or attorney, or account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, shall be listed by the trustee.

5. The property of a decedent shall be listed by the executor or administrator.

6. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

7. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

8. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

9. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on, except such as is usually kept elsewhere than at his place and designed to be transported out of, this state shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all such property in the hands of a receiver shall be listed in the taxing district and of the state as other sales are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner has no residence in the state, but has a farm or farms in one town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 305, Laws of 1923, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the ground of a railroad company, valued are not in good faith owned, controlled and operated by such company, shall be assessed, listed and taxed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, in the name of the company.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of letting possession by appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property removed between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either place at his option, but the assessor, person having been within such county, town, or district between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear that such property has been listed for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the state, it shall be listed in the town or district where it shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, it shall be listed in the county where found, and when determined in other case shall be so listed, unless otherwise provided.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all property owned by any firm or company of which he is a member. In this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, or in any other fiduciary or official capacity, the property of no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not listed all the property required to be listed, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full answer to such inquiries, he may make the assessment of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of such property, and shall make a statement of the amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement of the property and the value thereof.

Sec. 2197. Assessor may enter dwelling, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary in the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10395. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made, or any affidavit or schedule or inventory or return, or any other paper, shall knowingly make a false statement as to any material matter, which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value are to be assessed. All property in this state is made subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) hereof and shall be assessed at the rate of one (1) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located; but at the time of mining and severance from the mass in which it is located, then the ore shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "b" (3b) and four (4) as the same may be then constituted and defined, and if not mined but taken from ore in bulk to refill the assessed value of the ore in the bulk of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All unpatented real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof, and all patented real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof, which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts and kinds, except as provided by class three "b" (3b), manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "c" (3c), and all personal property not specifically provided for classes six (4) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer for agricultural purposes, and all livestock, poultry, implements for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 305, Laws of 1923, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unpatented real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and, which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof: Provided, if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and net bonded debt limitations now established by statute or by charter, all property in this state shall be valued and assessed at twenty and 40 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending and meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
