DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

CASS County, Minn., APR 15 1936.

Chas. Bonfield Assessor of the Town of Pratt

According to the requirement of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1936, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

L. Simon

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1986. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock or joint stock in other companies or corporations (when the property of such company is assessable where its principal office is situated), money loaned or loaned, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list properties, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or managed by him as agent or attorney, or on account of any society, company, association or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or endorsement, and also from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed in the county, town, city, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2004. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the place where such business is usually carried on: Provided, that logs and timber on land not in town and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed in the town, city, town, or district where found on May 1, and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taking district and of the state in the same manner as taxes on such lands; and be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property, engaged on a farm, does not reside in the county, the same shall be listed and taxed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the owner of such property shall reside in a town or district, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 318, Laws 1933. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, and other personal property owned by members of the family, and all personal property belonging to owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipping of a home, shall be exempt from all charges under the provisions of Chapter 250, Laws of 1931, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2010. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures thereto, situated upon the land of a railroad company, and used in the business of such company, operated and exclusively employed by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property with the railroad of which they are a part, in the name of the owner, if known, and if not known, to unknown.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs shall be assessed in the city, village, or township where situated, and if not situated in any city, village, or township, then in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where such person resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and Feb. The owner of personal property shipped from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and Feb. 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon after the shipment, and if he shall take the state from another state between and Feb. 1 shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property in any town, city, or village in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county auditor, and if between places in different counties or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined the same shall be deemed and taken as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2020. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property shall make and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified return to the assessor of all property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and shall make separate statements in the manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter is to be returned in the town, city, village, or district in which he resides, or in which the assessor, administrator, guardian, or other agent, or in any other capacity; but no person shall be required to make a return of any share of the capital stock and property of a corporation, or to be required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation the same.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the statement made by any person, firm, or company, or for any other person, company, corporation, or firm, is not full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person, or any member of such firm or company of the property so required to be listed, and if such person, or any member, to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property so required to be listed according to his best information and information.

Sec. 2028. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount and value, and add thereto a penalty of twenty (20) per cent, and be shall also and deliver to the county auditor. Upon receipt of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may assay dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the discharge of his official duties, enter any dwelling-house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 1998. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in any oath, affidavit, or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made, shall knowingly make a false statement of any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. Except as otherwise provided in the assessing or general property tax and not subject to any great taxation as follows, to-wit:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of the full and true value thereof. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The value of such iron ore shall be determined in the manner the one, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "b" (3b) and four (4) as the iron ore is known to exist on any tract or lot of real estate in which the land in which it is located, and the value of the ore and surface of the land in which it is located, and the value of the ore and surface and its agreement as the ore shall be determined and set down separately and its assessment as the ore shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods, furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, furniture, including clocks, of the family, and all personal property belonging exclusively to owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipping of a home, shall be exempt under the provisions of Chapter 318, Laws of 1933, which shall be listed and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. All stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise, all wares together with the furniture and fixtures, all tools, implements and farm materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), all personal property not specifically provided for by classes one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at thirty-one and one-third (32⅓) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and manufacturer, all farm implements and farm machinery used for the purpose of raising and harvesting crops, implements and machinery used by the owner in his business, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof, unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, that if the assessor shall find that the value of any tract of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class three (3) hereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, that if the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and assessed dollars and true or property shall be figured at thirty per cent and sixty per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. Property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
