The owner of personal property moved from one place to another between the first day of October (sic) May 1 and July 1 in any year, is assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state after the first day of October (sic) May 1 in any year, shall be not owed for him on May 1 of such year in the county, town or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is liable for tax of the current year on his property in another place.

Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, it between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county auditor, and if between different counties, the assessors in different counties, shall be determined by the commissioner of taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, he shall also list the property of persons for whose benefit it is held in trust, or in his possession or under his control which  he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, assignee, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.65. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall deem it necessary, he may examine any person, or the officers of any other person, company, or corporation, but not make a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in relation to the property, and the assessor may administer the oath to such person, shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Section 273.68. Failure to estate list. In case of failure to obtain a verified statement of personal property, the assessor shall make an assessment of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, the assessor shall furnish the owner or taxpayer a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.70. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized or law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling, house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 610.05. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in any report, statement, or other paper required or required or authorized to be or to be made on a basis of financial or revenue or tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. Raw class. All real and personal property subject to ad valorem property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other tax, shall be listed and classified for purpose of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall be classified as class 1 and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. ***

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, washing appurtenances, and all other personal property used by the owner or taxpayer for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof. * * *

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a" and class three "d", stocks of merchandise or all work implements, the furniture and fixtures used therewith, and all machinery, implements, tools, and all other fixtures of all industrial and machinery, implements, tools, and all other fixtures of industries, except as provided by class three "a" and all buildings and structures used for industrial purposes, and all property of the State of Minnesota or of the United States Government which is rural in character and devoted or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural purposes, shall constitute class three and shall be valued and assessed at 33⅓ per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a" and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof. Provided, however, that all such products in the hands of the producer shall be assessed from taxation. * * *

Subdivision 6. Class 3d. Livestock, poultry, all horses, mules and asses used exclusively for agricultural purposes, all agricultural implements and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuits, shall constitute class three "d" and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 270.07. The commissioner of taxation shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter . . .

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.03. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known; and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots or blocks included in each description of property.

Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.03. The assessors and at least one member of each local board of review shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the commissioner of taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor and board of review member attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of $10.00 per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending such meeting, and mileage at the rate of 7½ cents per mile, for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat, to be computed by the usually traveled route, and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.

The forms in this book are prescribed for the 1966 assessment by The Commissioner of Taxation
