Harry Thorsen Assessor of the Town of Wabedo

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1941, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1990. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock, and all other property, companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state), money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all such property belonging to or held or invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all money deposited subject to his order, or on account of such person or company or corporation.

3. The property of a child or insane person shall be listed by the guardian or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, or the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2003. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and other lumber, cut in this state and designed to be transported out of this state shall be assessed and listed in the town or district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such property, and such property shall not be removed from the borders of the state until all taxes shall be paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of three-fourths or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in two or more towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 216, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, washing machines, and all other household goods and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the right of way of a railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, and the owner, if known, and, if not known, as owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed in the city, village or borough in this state where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state, and belonging to any municipal corporation, shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2013. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, remaining in the same county, town, or district in which it was listed on May 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is last called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him in the county, town or district in which he resides on the day he moves in, and the assessor shall be liable for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place of listing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota Department of Taxation; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make and subscribe a true and full statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of such personal property in his possession or under his control, which belongs to any other person, as agent, or as guardian, trustee, executor or administrator, receiver, assignee, officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any property of the capital stock of any company or corporation which is required to be included and return as the capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete statement of the property belonging to persons under his control, or subject to the amount of the property he is required to list, and if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall make and file an account of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When required, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed, on request, a statement showing the valuation of the property listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may query for intention; and, when authorized by law to assess, may query for intention and, when authorized by law to assess in performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10362. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made for a basis of imposing or reducing any tax of assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1998. Classification of Property. All real and personal property subject to taxation shall be classified and assessed by the assessor as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value in which it is located, but all the land on which such iron ore is located shall be assessed and taxed as other real estate in which iron ore is located other than iron ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3), three "A" (3a) and four (4) in the town, city, village or borough in which such land is situate in which case iron ore is known to exist for assessable value of the ore estimate of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined separately the fact so and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract of land.
