Sec. 273.48. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed in the manner provided, if between places in the same county, the place listing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between places in different counties, or places in different counties, by the Commissioner of Taxation.

Sec. 273.25. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him, or in his charge or custody, and shall make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which  he is required to list, for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity ***.

Sec. 273.85. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor of any town or district, or the county auditor, or any other officer or his any other person, assessor, or county auditor, or board, fail, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, such assessor or other officer shall make such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 273.68. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement of the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 273.26. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 620.06. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who makes any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law or which is made in lieu of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, or in lieu of any tax or assessment, or in any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 273.13. Classification of property—Subdivision 1. How classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax shall be classified for purposes of assessing or other tax to be hereby classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.
