A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

C. T. Galer County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to General Statutes, 1923.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock, and all other personal property owned by him or under his control, or held for any other person, company or corporation, whether the property of such company or corporation be not assessed in this state; money loaned or invested, taxable, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2005. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is conducted; but logs and timber cut from lands within, or designed to be transported from, the state, shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which lien shall continue until such logs or the boards of the same until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which such farm is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 317, Laws 1925. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures thereon, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2019 Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306, Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any town or district in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Sec. 2015. Estate of decedent. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of any personal property which shall be moved from one town or district between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into a town or district between the dates aforesaid shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such town or district, town, or district in which he resides, unless or shall prove it appear to the assessor that he is sold for tax of the current year of the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed in the taxing district where it belongs, it may be listed in same county, the place of listing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the commissioners for equalization; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property shall make and deliver to the assessor a true and complete list of all the property, real and personal, owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which he shall hold as agent, attorney, or in any other capacity for any person, guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but separate from his own property, and the name and residence of the principal, or any company or corporation, and shall be required to list and return as its property and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not listed all the property required to be listed, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full answer under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person, as his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of any property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the property at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof, and, if personal, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in any statement, report, or affidavit, shall knowingly or intentionally lie or lie to evade a tax, or knowingly omit any tax or assessment, who shall willfully make any statement with any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1998. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lieu tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore, whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed at the value thereof, if mined, it shall be assessed at the value at the mine adjacent. The real estate in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The assessor, in assessing the ore, may in assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist, the assessable value of the ore separate from the value of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land separately and the accretion of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, or apartment, and household purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided in class three (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts, together with all tools, implements and machinery of manufacturers, materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided in class three (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided in class one (1) and class two (2) shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five and one-third (33 1/3) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the producer on his farm, shall constitute class three (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, General Statutes of Minnesota, 1923. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily continued in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
