According to the requirements of law, I hereewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the said Town for the year 1936, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties herdo annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

L. Sorenson County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.

All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1990. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his money, credits, bonds, shares of stock, joint stock company or association, and all other personal property of such company or corporation in which he is interested, money loaned or invested, annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all property of his principal, of which he shall have the care or otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company, or corporation, and all money or other property held by him as cashier, check or draft, and credits due from or owing to such person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor, idiot or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee, or the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2000. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owned, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2002. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to a mercantile or manufacturing establishment shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber not from lands within the state, shall be assessed at the place where the same is usually kept, and taxed in the taxing district thereof on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the taxing district and of the state and other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which lien may be enforced in the borders of the state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town, city, or district where the property is situated: Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 218, Laws 1931. Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property in the home or elsewhere ordinarily used for personal or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1925, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, and all other buildings or structures thereon, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by the owners of the property, shall be assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as unknown owner.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages, shall be listed and assessed in the city, village or town in which the property is located and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306, Laws 1933. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages, shall be listed and assessed at the place of business thereof, and taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the taxing district and of the state and other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which lien may be enforced in the borders of the state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2016. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where he resides, and that of every other person under guardianship, where the ward shall be.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Personal property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removed from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall list and assess the same in the place in which he is first called upon to do the same. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of each year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of death. In case of doubt as to the place where the property of a deceased person should be listed and assessed as in this chapter provided, it shall be listed in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the probate court of organization; and if property different counties, or places of different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed herein.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list money, credits, bonds, shall make out and deliver to the assessor, or shall transmit by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him, or held by him as agent or trustee. He shall also make separate statements in the manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by law is required to be listed for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other fiduciary capacity, or the property required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its owner and property taxable in this state.

Sec. 2026. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor or any other person, or the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, or has omitted any property required to be listed, or has omitted any property required to be listed, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may, in his discretion, make such return, or take such oral or other testimony in his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at the value so ascertained to be the true value thereof. When so assessed, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement of the property so assessed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation, or any person duly authorized by the proper performance of his duties, may enter any dwelling, outhouse, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10368. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized to be made by him as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall willfully make any statement as to any material matter which is known to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1998. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All property subject to taxation shall be assessed in a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other like tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one (1) and shall be assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value, if assessed, it shall be listed and assessed as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the time the assessor shall list real estate in which iron ore is located other than the ownership of the land, and assessed in accordance with the provisions of classes three (3) and four (4) hereof, the iron ore may be, in assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is found, to add the assessable value of the ore extractive of the land in the same manner as if the ownership of the ore and the land exclusive of the ore shall be determined and set down separately, and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property in the home or elsewhere ordinarily used for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided for class three "a" (3a), stocks of merchandise, all works of art, except those held for sale, all jewelry, all manufactures, industrial materials and manufactured articles, implements and machinery, whether farmers or otherwise, except as provided for class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by classes one (1) and three "b" (3b) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, all autos, motor and power used exclusively for agricultural purposes, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall, not exempt under the provisions of Chapter 385, Laws of 1925, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) and class three (3) hereof, for the purpose of a homestead, shall constitute class three "b" (3b) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent of the full and true value thereof: Provided, If the true and full value in money of the gross of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed at twenty (20) per cent thereof.

All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which shall be platted and assessed as a homestead, shall constitute class 3c and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, If the true and full value in money of the gross of $4,000.00, the amount in excess of said sum shall be valued and assessed as provided for by class four (4) hereof.

For the purpose of determining salaries of all officials based on assessed valuations and of determining tax limitations and exemptions, all property classified by statute or by or under, class 3b and class 3c property shall be figured at 25%, per cent and 50 per cent of the true and full value thereof respectively.

Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL, of each year.

The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
