Birch Lake Case

Section 1986. Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and if unknown so stated opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks, or tracts, or parcels, or divisions of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every day may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in April of each year. The county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
