DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

Chas. County, Minn., April 7 1929.

L. L. Shepard Assessor of the Town of Blind Lake
According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books for the year 1929 containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

H. A. Swan County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to General Statutes, 1923.)

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION. All Real and Personal Property in this State, and all Personal Property of persons residing therein, * * * is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED.

Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to the date of the assessment, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list his personal property, and all other property, in the town or district where the same is situated, and the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in this state, shall be listed by the owner, or his agent, or trustee, or other person in his behalf, in the name of the owner, or of the company or corporation.
2. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.
3. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, shall be listed by the trustee, or the person acting as executor or administrator.
4. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.
5. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.
6. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.
7. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of a manufacturer, by such agent in the name of his principal, or otherwise, as provided in this chapter.
8. The property of a partnership, by the partner or partners, or by the person acting as receiver, or otherwise, as provided in this chapter.
9. The property of a partnership, by the partner or partners, or by the person acting as receiver, or otherwise, as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, other than real estate, shall be assessed in either of the following ways: (1) If the property is moved from one county to another county, the assessor of the county to which it is moved shall assess it for the year in which it is first called upon by the assessor of the county to which it is moved, and the assessor of the county from which it is moved shall assess it for the year in which it is first called upon by the assessor of the county to which it is moved.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of death. In case of death of a person, the personal property of such person shall be assessed in the county in which he is first called upon by the assessor of the county to which it is moved, and the assessor of the county from which it is moved shall assess it for the year in which it is first called upon by the assessor of the county to which it is moved.

Sec. 2019. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor of a county is called upon to assess personal property, he shall examine under oath each person claiming an interest in such property, and shall make a return of the same to the assessor of the county to which it is moved, and the assessor of the county from which it is moved shall assess it for the year in which it is first called upon by the assessor of the county to which it is moved.

Sec. 2020. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a list of personal property, the assessor of the county to which it is moved shall assess it for the year in which it is first called upon by the assessor of the county to which it is moved, and the assessor of the county from which it is moved shall assess it for the year in which it is first called upon by the assessor of the county to which it is moved.

Sec. 2021. False statement regarding taxes. Any person who makes a false statement regarding taxes, or who makes a statement which is false in any particular, shall be liable to a fine of not more than fifty dollars, and to imprisonment for not more than thirty days.

Sec. 2022. Classification of Property. What percentages of full value shall be assessed for personal property shall be as follows:

1. From one whether mixed or unmixed, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of full value.
2. From two (2) shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of full value.
