EXTRACTS FROM LAWS

Sec. 1971. Property subject to taxation—All real and personal property in the state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

Sec. 1981. All real property subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on the first day of May in each year, and all personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the owner thereof.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following: 1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock, money loaned or invested, annuities, or other personal property, personal property interest, leased, or deposited with him as the agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company, or corporation.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from any tract of land within this state shall be listed in the district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district, and the taxes thereon shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed with and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the time of his death.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the time of his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another, shall be assessed in either in which he was first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for the use of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be verified. Every list prepared for taxation shall be put out and delivered to the assessor, upon request by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1, and the assessor shall examine the same, and if he finds any error or omission, he shall require the owner to correct the same, and if he finds that the list is not correct, he shall require the owner to list for taxation as agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company, or corporation, the property so omitted, and if it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2024. False statement regarding assessment. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the assessor has failed to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property or his principal he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to do so, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of such property, and assess the same according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2026. False statement regarding assessment. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the assessor has failed to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2028. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be determined in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, town, or district, it shall be listed in the town or district where the assessor resides; and if between places in different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, and value determined in either case.

Sec. 2030. Lists to be verified. Every list prepared for taxation shall be put out and delivered to the assessor, upon request by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1, and the assessor shall examine the same, and if he finds any error or omission, he shall require the owner to correct the same, and if he finds that the list is not correct, he shall require the owner to list for taxation as agent or attorney, or on account of any other person, company, or corporation, the property so omitted, and if it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2032. False statement regarding assessment. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the assessor has failed to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property or his principal he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to do so, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of such property, and assess the same according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2034. False statement regarding assessment. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the assessor has failed to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2036. False statement regarding assessment. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the assessor has failed to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same according to his best judgment and information.
