WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED

Sec. 1984. Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to the value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations (when the property of such company or corporation is not assessed in state), money loaned or invested, annuities, mines, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all moneys and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise distributed by him as the agent or attorney or on account of any other person, company or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation, by such persons as are in the hands of a receiver, who shall be the receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such persons as are in the hands of the principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2003. Personal property.—Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or of a manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on: Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and deposited in the hands of a merchant or manufacturer where found, and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall not be removed beyond the borders of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated. Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212. Laws 1925—Household Goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing and equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district in which situated in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Cities, towns and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306. Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities, towns and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of cities, towns and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a decedent person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a person under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides; and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor. A person moving from one county, town, or district to another on May 1 of such year in the town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper county, town or district in which personal property shall be listed, it shall not be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by betwixt the county board of equalization; and in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined otherwise case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall cause the same to be verified by himself upon blanks furnished by the assessor, by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by this chapter he is required to list for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but no person shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure of the amount of the property, the assessor may list the property according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall assess the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When requested, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwelling etc. Any assessor authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, if necessary, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of assessing any tax or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall knowingly make any statement as to any material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1913. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be subject to a general and personal property tax is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the option of the owner, the real estate in which iron ore is located, other real estate ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of class three (3) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist, the assessable value of the real estate shall be the value of the land exclusive of the ore, and the value of the ore shall be assessed separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be assessed at two-thirds (2/3) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three (3a), stocks of merchandise of all sorts used therewith, manufactures and fixtures used therewith, manufactures, implements and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a), and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be assessed at ten (10) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale and unmanufactured implements and tools, and unmanufactured implements in any agricultural pursuit shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in class three (3) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.
