DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR
OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR

Good County, Minn.,

1938

Carl Breckert Assessor of the County of Bull Moose IN THE COUNTY AFORESAID.

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Book for the said Town for the year 1938, containing a list of all lands and town lots subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return therefor to me as required by law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

A. H. Galen

County Auditor.

(Section Numbers refer to General Statutes 1923.)

the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village or town, and in the state in which they are assessed, where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306. Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor child or infant, or of a person under guardianship, shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assistees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assistee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which the property is upon by the date from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization: and if between different counties, or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission; and when determined in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control, in his character as attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity; but no statement shall be required to include in his statement any share of the capital stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list; and, if such person shall refuse to make full discovery under oath, the assessor may list the property of such person or his principal according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall assess the amount and value of such property as he believes the same at such amount. When referred to the assessor, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwelling et cetera. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary for the proper performance of his duties, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10386. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax, or assessing any national market, or any gross misdemeanor, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1913. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other taxation is hereby classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be valued and assessed at one (1) per cent of its true and assessed value. If unmined, it shall assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, in which the rate is provided. The real estate in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of class three (3) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist, the assessed value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessed value of the land and exclusive of the ore, shall be determined and set down separately, and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, and apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing or equipment of the family residence, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class three "a," (3a), stocks of merchandise and fixtures, together with the furniture and materials used therewith, manufactures and implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a," (3a), and all unprovided estate, except as provided by class three (3) and shall constitute class three (3) and shall be assessed at thirty-three (33 1/3%) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not sold for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the producer in any agricultural pursuit shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.
