Assessor of the

J. A. Galen

According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Book for the said Town for the year 1933, containing a list of all lands and town lots subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended to this book.

J. A. Galen

County Auditor.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property

(Section Numbers refer to General Statutes 1923.)

Sec. 1974. Property subject to taxation. All real and personal property in this state, except that personal property of persons residing therein which is exempt from taxation, is subject to taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED Sec. 1984. Personal property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all his moneys, credits, bonds, shares of stock of joint stock or other companies or corporations in which the property assessed in this state) money loaned or invested annuities, franchises, royalties, and other personal property.

2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of the principal, all moneys and other personal property assessed, which are otherwise controlled by him as the agent or attorney, or on account of, any other person, company or corporation, and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check, or draft, and credits due from or owing by any person, company or corporation.

3. The property of a minor child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.

4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.

5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.

6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.

7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.

8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of an agent, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchant.

Sec. 2003. Personal property.—Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where the owner, agent, or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or manufacturer shall be listed in the town or district where his business is carried on. Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within, and designed to be transported out of, this taxing district shall be assessed and taxed in the taxing district where found on May 1; and all taxes thereon shall be paid into the different funds of the county of the taxing district and of the state as other taxes are paid, and such taxes shall not be received by the treasurer, which shall not be received by the treasurer of this state until all such taxes are paid in full.

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of live stock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside in the town or district in which the farm is situated, he shall list and assess the same in the town or district where the farm is situated. Provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts it shall be listed and assessed in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such farm is located.

Chap. 212. Laws 1925.—Household Goods. All clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing of light, heat, or power, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, with the machinery and fixtures therein, situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property of the owner, if he is known, or, if not, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, as "owner unknown."

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed where situated without regard to where the principal or other place of business of said company is located.

Chap. 306. Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies outside of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of any city, village or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed by the Minnesota tax commission in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estate of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed where the guardian resides, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either in which he is first called upon by the assessor, or in the county in which the property is located.

Sec. 2002. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it can not be listed as in this chapter provided, if between places in the same county, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties or places in different counties, by the Minnesota tax commission, by the assessor, and in either case shall be as binding as if fixed hereby.

Sec. 2007. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall also make separate statements in like manner of all personal property in his possession or under his control which by his position or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, factor, or in any other capacity, but no person shall be required to include in his statement any personal property which stock of any company or corporation which it is required to list and return as its capital and property for taxation in this state.

Sec. 2030. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for another person, or for a partnership or corporation, has not made in full, fair, and complete list thereof, he may examine such person under oath.

son under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is required to list, and, if satisfied that the same has been correctly covered under oath, the assessor may list the property to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2033. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount and value of such property, and assess the same at such amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When required, he shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwelling, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary, enter any dwelling house, building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 10306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to material matter which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1913. Classification of Property. What percentages of full and true value to be assessed. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other lien tax shall be classified for purposes of taxation as follows:

Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined, shall constitute class one (1) and shall be assessed at ten (10) per cent of its true and full value. If mined, it shall be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate aforesaid. The real estate in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of class three (3) and four (4) as the case may be. In assessing iron ore, it is known to exist, the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore, shall be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two shall be assessed against the tract or lot.

Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family, and all personal property actually used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes, or for the furnishing of light, heat, or power, shall constitute class two (2) and shall be valued and assessed at twenty-five (25) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 3. Live stock, poultry, all agricultural products, except as provided by class two (2), shall be assessed together with the furniture and fixtures used therewith, manufacturers' materials and manufactured articles, all tools, implements and machinery, whether fixtures or otherwise, except as provided by class three "a" (3a) and all unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) heretofore, shall constitute class three (3) and shall be assessed at thirty (30) per cent of the true and full value thereof.

Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer and not held for sale, and all agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the producer, shall constitute class three "a" (3a) and shall be valued and assessed at ten (10) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Class 4. All property not included in the three preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.
