DIRECTIONS TO ASSESSOR

CASS

County, Minn.

OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR,
1942.

J. B. Brown Assessor of the Town of Gould
According to the requirements of law, I herewith deliver to you the Real and Personal Property Assessment Books, for the said Gould for the year 1942, containing a list of all Platted and Unplatted Real Estate subject to taxation, so far as the same have come to my knowledge from any source and I hereby direct you to assess all property and make return thereof to me as required by the law prescribing your duties hereto annexed.

A form of the return to be signed by you is appended in this book.

J. B. Brown County Auditor.

Sec. 1974. PROPERTY SUBJECT TO TAXATION.
All real and personal property in this state, and all personal property of persons residing therein, . . . is taxable, except such as is by law exempt from taxation.

WHEN LISTED AND ASSESSED
Sec. 1984. . . . Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if, acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 1999. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following:
1. Every person of full age, and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his . . . personal property.
2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of the principal, the property of a minor, child or insane person, subject to the control of a guardian, or of a trustee, or of an executor or administrator.
3. The property of a minor, child or insane person shall be listed by his guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.
4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, or of a decedent's estate, shall be listed by the executor or administrator.
5. The property of a corporation whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, by such receiver.
6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.
7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.
8. The property of manufacturers and others, by the heads of an establishment, by such agent in the name of this partnership, as merchants.
Sec. 2003. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the County, town, or district whose owner, agent or trustee resides, except when the same are in the hands of a receiver, executor or administrator, in which case they shall be listed in the town or district where the business is carried on . . .

Sec. 2006. Farm property of non-resident. When the owner of real estate, including electric light and power lines, and all household goods, all household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, and other articles of value, are not in good faith, owned, or reside thereon, the same shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the farm is situated. Provided, that if the property used by the owner for personal and domestic purposes or for the farming or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed in the town or district where the owner, agent or trustee resides.
Sec. 2008. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators, shops, houses, with the machinery and fixtures therein situated upon the land of any railroad company which are not in good faith, owned, or reside thereon, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the business of such company is carried on . . . and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.
Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the business of such company is carried on . . . and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated.
Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the decedent shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.
Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of a minor under guardianship shall be listed and assessed in either of the town or district of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing before his appointment.
Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The personal property of a person moving from one town or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either of the town or districts of which he is a resident, or in the town or district owned by him on May 1 of such year. In the county, town, or district in which he resides, unless he shall make it appear to the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another town.

Section 1986. Maxson's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, and to correspond with the assessment books complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the number of acres, and the lots or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL of each year.
The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Department of Taxation for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day, and any assessor traveling in connection therewith shall receive mileage at the rate of ten cents per mile for each day necessarily traveled in going to and returning from the county seat to the place where he usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury. Upon the amount of the county treasury.

Extracts from Laws Relating to the Listing of Personal Property.

(Section Numbers Refer to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927.)

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt, in case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it cannot be listed, the place for listing and assessing shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different communities in different counties, by the Department of Taxation . . .

Sec. 2022. Lists to be verified. Every assessor assigned to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him, or by any other person, company, or corporation, but not made a full and complete list of all such property, but a list of the principal items of his possession or under his control which . . . he is required to list and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such value as he may determine, and shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary for the purpose of making a list of such property, enter any building, or structure, and view the same and the property therein who in making the same, shall be authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to the value of such property which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1998. False statement respecting taxes. Every person who in making the same, shall be authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall wilfully make any statement as to the value of such property which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1999. Lists to be verified. Every assessor assigned to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor upon blanks furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him, or by any other person, company, or corporation, but not made a full and complete list of all such property, but a list of the principal items of his possession or under his control which . . . he is required to list and, if such person shall refuse to make full disclosure under oath, according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such value as he may determine, and shall sign and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.
