Dear Sir:

Your communication sent here several weeks ago came here during my absence and for that reason has not had any attention any sooner. I have been laid up with the flu and have not given much attention to business lately.

Your proposition for the acreage on Ten Mile Lake is satisfactory and I will furnish you a special warranty deed for the property and when I again hear from you I will try to locate the abstract in connection with it. I think I have one. In case that I do not have the abstract I would not care to go to the expense getting another one at the price mentioned, but more than likely I will be able to locate the abstract in some of our files.

Yours truly,

EIPS:WFS

Pres.

Minneapolis June 6-32
Mr Ed J Staede
Walker

Dear Sir

Will you kindly let me know if you
located the abstract
of title for those 21 acres on Ten Mile Lake.

I am just about ready to close the deal for $200.00 cash as per your recent letter to me.

As I have not seen
the land, will you
please let me know
if the land is very rolling or rough and if the lake shore is swampy, muddy or if it is sandy shore?

you will favor me
greatly if you answer
this letter by return
of mail.

yours truly
Frank Reynolds
