Sec. 1984. * * * Personal Property shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on May 1, and if, acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the persons acquiring it.

Sec. 1989. By whom listed. Personal Property shall be listed in the manner following:

1. Every person of full age and sound mind, being a resident of this state, shall list all of his * * * personal property.
2. He shall also list separately, and in the name of his principal, all monies and other personal property invested, loaned, or otherwise controlled by him as agent or trustee. * * *
3. Personal property shall be listed by the guardian, or by the person having such property in charge.
4. The property of a person for whose benefit it is held in trust, by the trustee; of the estate of a deceased person, by the executor or administrator.
5. Personal property whose assets are in the hands of a receiver, shall be listed by such receiver.
6. The property of a body politic or corporate, by the proper agent or officer thereof.
7. The property of a firm or company, by a partner or agent thereof.
8. The property of manufacturers and others in the hands of a receiver, by such agent in the name of his principal, as merchandise.

Sec. 2002. Where listed. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided, personal property shall be listed and assessed in the county, town, or district where owner, agent or trustee resides.

Sec. 2005. Merchants and manufacturers. The personal property pertaining to the business of a merchant or manufacturer, located in the town or district in which the principal place of business of such firm is located.

Chap. 212. Laws 1925. Household goods. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel or members of the family, and all personal property of persons residing in this state, shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the firming or equipment of the family residence, shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same is usually kept.

Sec. 2068. Elevators, etc., on railroad. All elevators and warehouses, and other structures, which are not in good faith owned, operated and exclusively controlled by such company, shall be listed and assessed as personal property in the town or district where the same are situated.

Sec. 2012. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs in any city, village, or borough in this state shall be listed and assessed in the town or district where the same are situated.

Chap. 306. Laws 1925. Personal property of electric light and power companies in cities and villages. Personal property of electric light and power companies having a fixed situs outside the corporate limits of villages, cities and boroughs shall be listed and assessed by the Department of Taxation in the county where situated.

Sec. 2014. Estates of decedents. The personal property of the estate of a deceased person shall be listed and assessed at the place of listing at the time of his death.

Sec. 2015. Persons under guardianship. The personal property of persons under guardianship shall be listed and assessed at the guardian residence, and of every other person under guardianship, where the ward resides.

Sec. 2016. Assignees and receivers. Personal property in the hands of an assignee or receiver shall be listed and assessed at the residence of the assignee or receiver.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property removed from one county, town, or district to another between May 1 and July 1, shall be assessed in either county, town, or district where the property was last situated in this state from another state between said dates shall list the property owned by him on May 1 of such year in the county, town, or district where situated, and if the assessment is made in another state, the assessor that he is held for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property where it cannot be listed as in this chapter provided, the assessor shall be determined by the county board of equalization; and if between different counties, the place in different counties, by the Department of Taxation.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be verified. Every person required to list personal property shall verify the same by a sworn statement in blank books furnished by him, a verified statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year. He shall also verify the same by a sworn statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, and if such person shall refuse to make full discovery of all personal property for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, or in any other capacity, * * *

Sec. 2020. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for himself, or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made a full and correct statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1 of the current year, he shall also examine the person under oath, and if such person shall refuse to make full discovery of all personal property for taxation as agent or attorney, guardian, parent, trustee, executor, or in any other capacity, * * *

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount of value of such property, and assess the same at such amount in the manner provided in this chapter. The assessor shall also obtain and deliver to the person assessed a copy of the statement showing the valuation of the property so listed.

Sec. 1997. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary to the proper performance of his duties, enter any building, dwelling, or structure, and view the same, and the property therein.

Sec. 10306. False statement regarding taxes. Every person who knowingly makes a false statement which is intended or authorized by law to be made as a basis of imposing or reducing any tax or assessment, who shall willfully make any statement as so provided, which he knows to be false, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 1993. Classification of property.—Subdivision 1. How Classified. All real and personal property subject to a general property tax and not subject to any gross earnings or other license tax, shall be classified for purposes of taxation as provided by this section.

Subdivision 2. Class 1. Iron ore whether mined or unmined shall constitute class one and shall be valued and assessed at fifty (50) per cent of its true and full value. If unmined, it shall be assessed at the value of the iron ore in the mine, and if mined, it shall be assessed at the value of the iron ore in the mine plus the cost of transportation to the place of sale.

Subdivision 3. Class 2. All household goods and furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, wearing apparel of members of the family and all personal property, except such as is provided for in this section, shall constitute class two and shall be valued and assessed at 25 per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 4. Class 3. All agricultural implements, except as provided in this section, shall constitute class three "a", and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 5. Class 3a. All agricultural products in the hands of the producer shall constitute class three "a", and shall be valued and assessed at 10 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 8. Class 3c. Agricultural purposes, all agricultural tools, implements, and machinery used by the owner in any agricultural pursuit shall constitute class three "c", and shall be valued and assessed at 20 per cent of full and true value thereof.

Subdivision 9. Class 4. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value thereof.

Home Brook, Cass

Section 1936. Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment book, complete lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown so stated, opposite each tract or lot, the number of acres, and the lots or parts of lots, or blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property becoming subject to assessment and taxation every odd numbered year may be appended to the personal property assessment book. The assessment books and blanks shall be in readiness for delivery to the assessors on or before the third Monday in April of each year.

The assessors shall, in accordance with the instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state, attend such meetings shall receive as compensation for such services the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
