Sec. 2007. Personal Property of electric light and power companies. Personal property of electric light and power companies shall be listed and assessed in the manner herein provided. The property of electric light and power companies shall be listed and assessed in the name of the company.

Sec. 2017. Property moved between May and July. The owner of personal property, removing from one county, town, or district into another county, town, or district, shall list such property in the county, town, or district in which he first called upon by the assessor. A person moving into this state from another state between said dates shall list such property in the county, town, or district in which he first called upon by the assessor, unless he shall make it appear to the contrary in the return for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2018. Where listed in case of doubt. In case of doubt as to the proper place of listing personal property or where it can be listed in more than one county, town, or district, the assessor shall list such property in the county, town, or district in which he first called upon by the assessor, unless he shall make it appear to the contrary in the return for tax of the current year on the property in another state.

Sec. 2022. Lists to be Verified. Every person required to list property for taxation shall make out and deliver to the assessor, in the manner provided by law, a true and correct statement of all personal property owned by him on May 1, and, if such statement is not verified by him or by any other person, company, or corporation, he shall also make separate statements, in like manner of all items, under oath in regard to the amount of the property he is claiming to be exempt from taxation, in the manner provided by law. The assessor may list the property of such person or his official according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 2023. Failure to obtain list. In case of failure to obtain a statement of personal property, the assessor shall ascertain the amount as he believes to be the true value thereof. When the amount is ascertained, the assessor shall file a copy of such statement with the assessor.

Sec. 1987. Assessor may enter dwellings, etc. Any officer authorized by law to assess property for taxation may, when necessary, enter dwellings, tenements, houses, buildings, or structures, and view the same and the property therein.

Sec. 1988. Examination under oath. Whenever the assessor shall be of the opinion that the person listing property for him or for any other person, company, or corporation, has not made out a true and correct statement of the property he is claiming to be exempt from taxation, he may examine the books, papers, or other documents of such person or his official under oath. The assessor may list the property of such person or his official according to his best judgment and information.

Sec. 1989. Property of non-resident. When the owner of livestock or other personal property connected with a farm does not reside in the county, town, or district where the farm is situated, provided, that if the farm is situated in several towns or districts, it shall be listed in each of such towns or districts. Provided, that if the farm is situated in one town or district, it shall be listed in that town or district.

Sec. 1990. Household Goods. All household goods, such as furniture, including clocks, musical instruments, sewing machines, and other personal property, shall be listed and assessed in the name of the owner for personal and domestic purposes. Provided, that logs and timber cut from lands within and taxed in the taxing district where found on July 1, and all such taxes shall be a lien upon such logs and timber, which shall be listed and assessed in the district where the same are usually kept.

Sec. 1991. Diverters, etc., on railroad. All diversions and ware houses, or other personal property which are not in good faith owned and assessed as personal property in the town or district where situated, in the name of the owner, if known, and, if not known, in the name of the owner, shall be listed and assessed in the name of the owner. Provided, that if the person who owns such property shall be a resident of this state, he shall be listed and assessed in the name of the owner. The assessor shall list and assess the same in the name of the owner.

CHAPTER 98

Extra Session Laws, 1937
Section 1. That Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 1974, be amended so as to read as follows:

"Class 2b. All unplatted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, at twenty (20) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, that the true and full value is in excess of the sum of $4,000.00. The value shall be assessed by class four (4) hereof. Provided, further, that the true and full value of each parcel of unplatted real estate for tax purposes, except that said first $4,000.00 full value shall be subject to and be taxed for the purposes of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

"Class 2c. All platted real estate, except as provided by class one (1) hereof and which is used for the purposes of a homestead, at five (5) per cent of the true and full value thereof. Provided, that the true and full value of each parcel of unplatted real estate for tax purposes, except that said first $4,000.00 full value shall be subject to and be taxed for the purposes of raising funds for the discharge of any and all state indebtedness incurred prior to and existing at the time of the passage of this act.

"Class 3. All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class four (4) and shall be valued and assessed at forty (40) per cent of the full and true value hereof.

"This Act shall take effect and be in full force and effect from and after January 1, 1937.

Approved July 29, 1937.

Section 1986, Mason's Minnesota Statutes, 1927. The county auditor shall annually provide the necessary assessment books and blanks at the expense of the county, for and to correspond with each assessment district. He shall make out, in the real property assessment books, lists of all lands or lots subject to taxation, showing the names of the owners, if to him known, and, if unknown, so stated on the list, the number and location of lots, blocks included in each description of property. The list of real property subject to assessment and taxation, together with the names of the assessors on or before the third Monday in APRIL of each year. The assessors shall meet at the office of the county auditor on a day to be fixed by the Minnesota Tax Commission for the purpose of receiving instructions as to their duties under the laws of the state. Each assessor attending such meetings shall receive as compensation for such service the sum of four dollars per day for each day necessarily consumed in attending said meeting and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going from his home to and returning from the county seat to be computed by the usually traveled route and paid out of the county treasury upon the warrant of the county auditor.
